United Press International
MAHA — Texas Coach Cliff Stinson said he was concerned the averages would catch up with Longhorns in the NCAA College World Series.

Shannon's two-run double in the fourth inning and stellar performances from the bottom of the Texas batting order sparked the Longhorns to an 8-2 win over Mississippi State Sunday night to set today's game with Southwest Conference rival Arkansas.

"I'm not tickled about the prospect of playing them again," Gustafson said of the Razorbacks, 10-3 winners over Arizona. The Longhorns and Razorbacks are the only teams to meet in the series.

Stinson noted the Longhorns Arkansas four out of five games during the regular season and said, "concerned with the law of averages."

Longhorns Mark Chelette and Robertson singled in the fifth inning and scored on Shannon's double to center field. The Arkansas offense comprised the bottom of the Texas batting order.

Stinson went to the plate 10 times in the fifth and came up with five runs, two hits and a walk. Oil Field players by Keith Walker, Chelette, and Joe Bruno; two sacrifices; and two walks. Jim Tjader added a solo homer in the seventh. Chelette and Robertson each went three-for-four and scored two runs while Shannon, a .132 hitter entering the series, was two-for-two with two RBIs.

Arkansas catcher Ronn Reynolds smacked a three-run bases-loaded double in the seventh inning to highlight a Razorback uprising that tamed the Arizona Wildcats.

The Razorbacks scored five times in the seventh when Arizona pitchers walked in two runs and Reynolds drove in three more with his double. In the eighth, Arkansas pushed across four more runs on a walk and four hits, including a two-run double by Ed Wallace.

For Arkansas, Larry Wallace had three hits and scored twice, Ed Wallace drove in three runs and Reynolds had two RBI. Johnny Ray and Randal Carter each scored twice.

Arkansas Coach Norm DeBrynn said the Razorbacks were playing at their peak.

"Our club is very confident in its hitting," he said. "Friday, Ronn Reynolds didn't get a hit. Today he got the big hit. It's a different guy every game."

In a loser's bracket game, designated hitter Matt Vejar slammed a two-run homer to lift Cal State-Fullerton from a shakey start and eliminate Connecticut from the series.

An emotional Connecticut Coach Larry Panciera announced his retirement after 32 years as head coach following the game.

"Our defense let us down. We gave away too much in two days," Panciera said. "Things didn't fall into place and I guess it wasn't meant to be."

Fullerton Coach Augie Garrido said the Titan's major concern was coming from a night game to a day game.

"We didn't play particularly well and the point is to stay in the tournament and get our momentum going," Garrido said. "Some of our better baseball is in front of us. It has to be."
