Cowboys roll, Oilers get rolled

United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO — With Dallas' usually reliable ground game virtually shut down, Roger Staubach passed for two second-half touchdowns Sunday to give the heavily favored Cowboys a 21-13 victory over the San Francisco 49ers.

The 49ers, losing for the second time, carried a 10-6 lead into the second half but Staubach rallied the Cowboys on scoring passes of 22 yards to Drew Pearson and 13 to Billy Joe Dupree as Dallas gained its second victory.

Ray Wersching kicked a 44-yard field goal, his second of the game, with 6:18 left to put San Francisco within six points at 19-13 but quarterback Steve DeBerg was tackled in the end zone by Harvey Martin for a safety that put the game away.

Rafael Septien kicked field goals of 23 and 51 yards, his longest ever, to account for the other Dallas points. Wersching's first field goal covered 30 yards and O.J. Simpson, playing for the first time in almost a season, ran a yard at the end of 57-yard drive for a touchdown to account for the 49er points.

Staubach, throwing most of the time out of the shotgun formation on third down, completed 21 passes for 261 yards. A week ago he had to resort to a similar passing game in a 22-21 victory over St. Louis. In two games Staubach now has 41 completions for 530 yards.

Pearson's TD came with 2:58 left in the third quarter and put the Cowboys ahead 13-10. The scoring pass came when the 49ers elected to put a five-man rush on Staubach on third down, leaving Pearson all alone in the end zone for an easy score.

With the 49ers bogged down in their own end, DeBerg threw a short pass into the middle on third down and linebacker D.D. Lewis picked it off and ran it to the 15. Three plays later Staubach connected with Dupree at the three and the big tight end broke through three tacklers into the end zone for a 19-10 lead.

The Houston Oilers were not as fortunate as Terry Bradshaw passed for 198 yards and two touchdowns and Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense smothered Earl Campbell and the rest of the Houston offense Sunday to lead the Steelers to a 38-7 victory over Houston in a replay of their AFC championship game last January.

Bradshaw completed an 18-yard TD pass to Jim Smith and a 16-yard pass to running back Sidney Thornton, who also scored the Steelers' first touchdown on a 1-yard plunge. Rookie Matt Bahr added a 45-yard field goal and five extra points in the Steelers' second victory of the season.

Rookie running back Greg Hawthorne and linebacker Dennis Winston each scored their first pro touchdowns, Hawthorne on an 8-yard run and Winston on a 41-yard return of an interception.

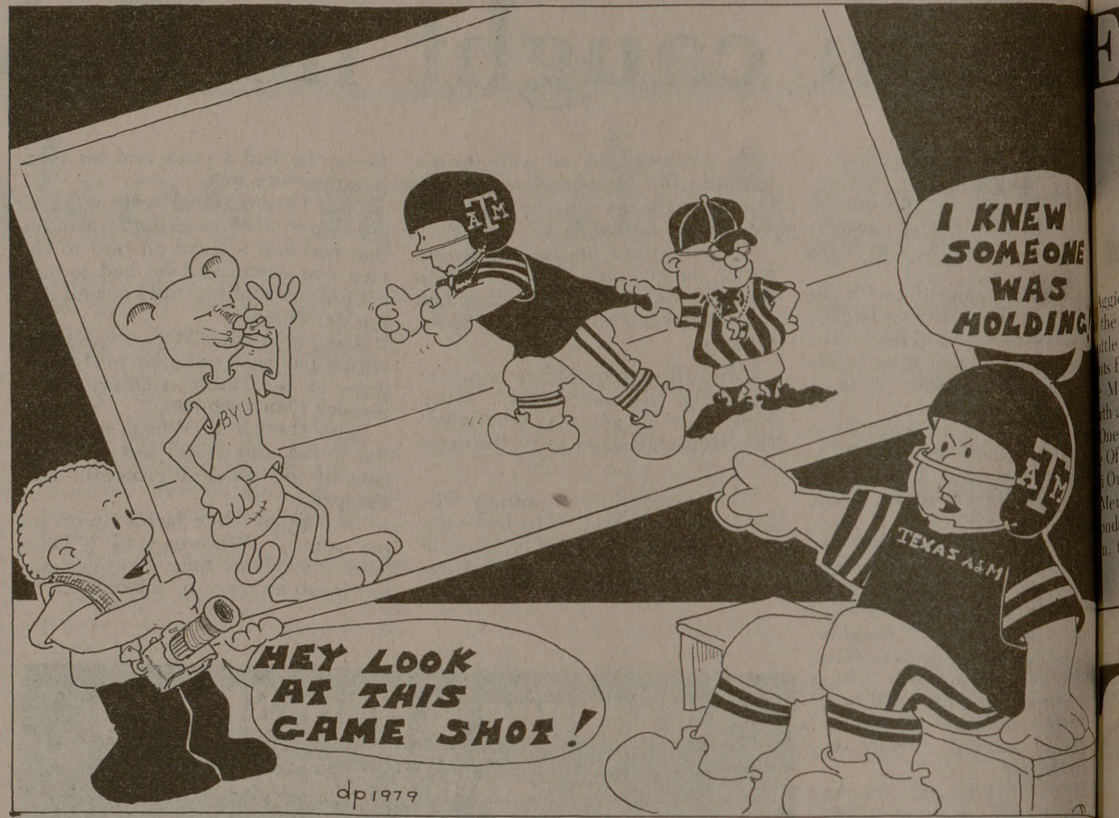

The 38 points were the most ever by Pittsburgh against their AFC Central Division rival and their most in a game since they beat Tampa Bay 42-0 in 1976.

The Steeler defense intercepted five passes from starting quarterback Dan Pastorini and backup quarterback Gifford Nielsen, who went in when Pastorini injured his right arm in the third period. The Steelers also sacked Pastorini four times for 33 yards and recovered a fumble.

The Oilers scored with three seconds left in the game on a 9-yard pass from Nielsen to Guido Merkins.

Campbell, Houston's chief offensive weapon, suffered the worst performance of his 2-year career, managing just 38 yards on 16 carries. His previous low output was 41 yards, also against the Steelers, in the 14th game of last season when he was injured late in the first quarter.

Pastorini did not fare any better as he completed only 4-of-16 passes for 16 yards.

The Oilers managed just 21 net yards in the first half, and the only Dionne Warwick thought Red Cross was only about hurricanes.

"True. I always thought of Red Cross as a kind of rescue force in times of disaster and little more.

"Then I learned that in towns and cities across America, Red Cross gives the kind of help to individuals that you rarely hear about, because it doesn't make headlines in the newspaper.

"Red Cross, for instance, helps elderly people get to doc-

What is a ref —?

A ref is a gal or guy Who has a good eye Is fast on his feet And likes to compete

A ref keeps up the score The plays, players and more He enforces the rules, And maintains everyone's cools

A ref's just an Ag Who claims sports as his bag And if you'd like to try Just come on by.

See Dave Kerr at the IM Office, DeWare Fieldhouse. Now hiring for fall sports officials. Will train.

Guest Policies And Other Changes

A new users' policy is now in effect for campus recreational facilities, supervised by the Intramural Office. Entrance to such facilities requires a TAMU student ID, a recreation ID or a recreation pass.

All students must show a current student TAMU ID card to gain entrance. Staff, faculty student spouses, staff spouses, and faculty spouses must present a recreation ID. These recreation ID's also let the holder participate in any intramural sports or activities. Recreation ID's may be purchased for $1.00 at the Intramural Office in DeWare Fieldhouse, starting September 24. Children of students, staff, and faculty must enter and participate only with their parents.

TAMU Alumni are permitted to use the facilities if they purchase the $1.00 ID card. Proof of graduation should be presented at the time of purchase. Guests may use the facilities by purchasing a daily recreation pass. Guests must be sponsored by a student, faculty or staff member. The sponsors must purchase the pass and present a current TAMU student or recreation ID upon entrance.

Guests must also present a pictured ID such as a driver's license upon entrance. Guests must remain with their sponsors and both shall occupy only one court.

Persons not affiliated with TAMU except by membership of a TAMU recognized sports club must purchase a recreation ID card for $6.00, which allows restricted use only during club functions. At other times, use is permitted to these individuals only as a guest. Abuse of privileges may result in forfeiture of the ID card.

About DeWare's Weightroom

The DeWare Weightroom has been closed indefinitely. The Nautilus and Universal equipment is the property of the TAMU Athletic Department, although they have lent the use of the equipment to the Intramural Program for the last few years. Currently a new weight coach is establishing weight training programs for 18 different athletic teams. The difficulty in scheduling time for all these individuals to work out is what prompted the closing.

The Intramural Office cannot say if or when the facility will be available again to the students, faculty and staff of Texas A&M. As it stands, the free weights in G. Rollie White are the only equipment available for general use. G. Rollie White is open Monday through Friday, 5 p.m. until midnight and weekends, from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m.

why's the ground shaking so much?

Well, if it's not a corps run it must be an intramural football game!

In The Way of Kyle Field

The Intramural Celebration Softball Weekend Tournament has been postponed until October. Those same ghastly rains that have slowed construction to Kyle Field have also slowed the pace on the Perberthy Intramural Complex lights. No lights... no reason to celebrate... yet. Entries will open sometime in October so start rounding up your softball buddies. We'll keep you posted on specifics.
