LAS VEGAS, Nev. — CBS Evening News anchorman Walter Cronkite says both the Republican and Democratic parties have urged him to seek public office, but that he resents their attempts to capitalize on his name.

"I've had offers from both parties to run for offices ranging from dog catcher to president," Cronkite said during the weekend at the 34th annual Radio and Television News Directors Association convention.

SAN FRANCISCO — The Coast Guard searched the Pacific 400 miles west-southwest of San Francisco Monday for a Greek freighter carrying a crew of 25 which radioed an SOS three times, but then made a routine message check two hours later.

The Coast Guard said it would continue a search for the vessel until visual contact was established with the ship, whose crewmen are Greek, Filipino and Indonesian.

NEW YORK — A man who apparently believed the deacon of a Brooklyn church had seduced his former wife decapitated the deacon with an ax Sunday in full view of horrified parishioners, police say.

Police said Deacon Robert Williams was killed while en route to Sunday school services at the Light House Church of Love and Peace.
