Boilermakers still teasing

UCLA to upset Purdue?

United Press International
For the better part of the last dozen years Purdue University's football team has been as big a tease as a row of burlesque strippers.

With the exception of last season, when the Boilermakers posted a 9-2-1 record, Purdue has had a reputation of not fulfilling its potential, despite perennially fielding a plethora of talent that has included the likes of Leroy Keyes, Mike Phipps, Bob Griese and Otis Armstrong.

Purdue started to shed its image last season when Coach Jim Young guided the Boilermakers to a Peach Bowl berth (and a subsequent victory over Georgia Tech) and this year there is talk of the team's making it to the Rose Bowl as the Big Ten Conference champions.

The Boilermakers began impressively last Saturday when they crushed Wisconsin, 41-20, behind quarterback Mark Herrmann's four touchdown passes.

UCLA is Purdue's opponent Saturday night at Los Angeles and we think rabid Purdue fans may need a few boilermakers when the final result comes in. We're picking this one as our UPSET SPECIAL with the Bruins containing Herrmann enough to pull out a 20-16 victory.

Here's how we see the major games across the nation:

The East
Penn St. 42 Rutgers 3 — Joe Paterno always takes it easy on the Scarlet Knights.

Pittsburgh 27 Kansas 14 — Panthers could be one of nation's best offensive teams if passing game clicks.

Tennessee 30 Boston College 7 — The fruits of Coach Johnny Majors labors should begin to ripen this season.

West Virginia 24 Syracuse 17 — One preseason magazine carried both teams in its bottom 10.

The South
Georgia 40 Wake Forest 0 — Bulldogs have a fierce bite this season.

Maryland 22 Clemson 10 — Terps out to avenge loss to Tigers last season which cost them the ACC crown.

North Carolina St. 30 Virginia 15 — Wolfpack's Dwight Sullivan seems like the perfect replacement for Ted Brown.

Florida St. 19 Arizona St. 10 — Seminoles may not be as good as everyone thought but neither are Sun Devils.

The Midwest
Michigan 20 Notre Dame 14 — Wolverines have too much speed for Irish.

Missouri 42 Illinois 9 — Tigers think they're as good as Oklahoma.

Ohio St. 31 Minnesota 13 — Buckeyes' wide-open offense will be puzzling for inexperienced Gopher defense.

Wisconsin 23 Air Force 9 — Badgers much better than they looked against Purdue.

The Midlands
Nebraska 37 Utah St. 7 — Huskers' defense among nation's best.

Oklahoma 43 Iowa 10 — Billy Sims sets off on quest for second straight Heisman Trophy.

Iowa St. 35 Bowling Green 11 — Cyclones had better enjoy this one.

Next week they meet Texas.
LSU 18 Colorado 15 — McClendon out a winner this son.

The Southwest
Houston 25 Florida 14 — De- Brown's running spoil's Clay Pell's debut as Cator coach.

Tulane 38 Rice 7 — Rich starts terrorizing Owls' defense.
SMU 27 TCU 13 — Mike starts cranking up.

Texas Tech 30 New Mexico — This is more fun than playing Southern Cal.

The Far West
USC 33 Oregon St. 8 — good thing for Beavers the are hurting.

UCLA 20 Purdue 16 — defensive secondary Herrmann a rough day.

Stanford 21 San Jose St. — Cardinals rebound from Wave attack.

Washington 30 Utah 8 — continue to embarrass Mountain foes.

Stratford puts streak on line

United Press International
Defending Class AAAA champion Houston Stratford puts the state's longest high school winning streak on the line tonight against Port Neches-Groves.

Coach Oscar Cripps readily admits he wants to continue the winning ways begun by his team in 1977 but he also admits that the next two weeks are very important in the final outcome this year for fourth-ranked Stratford.

"It's our goal to begin this week to play for the state championship, and to do that means we want to win every game," said Cripps. "But we also realize that we have a very young team this year."

"And, what we learn against Port Neches this week and against La Porte next week is going to tell us a whole lot about ourselves," he said. "Playing two great teams right off the bat can certainly help you when you get to district."

Stratford won its final four games in 1977 and 15 straight last year to run up a 19-game win streak. The four victories in 1977 came after a district loss, and that one defeat kept Stratford out of the playoffs until 1978.

"I believe we have the quality of a team this year needed to win the state championship, and that's what we're going to be out to do when we begin play Friday," Cripps said. "I just hope our young players will be ready to go against the passing of Port Neches and the running of La Porte. If they can, I think we'll be ready for anything this year."

While Stratford is out to extend its winning ways, Abilene Cooper will be at Wichita Falls to prove last week's 50-14 victory over Brownwood wasn't a fluke. The Cougars gained the No. 1 rating in Class AAAA with the Brownwood win.

Here's how to eliminate 18 hours of study time each week.

If your study technique is typical, you spend 26 hours each week buried in your books. 66-2/3% of this study time is wasted on an antiquated set of procedures. Procedures that have remained unchanged for over a hundred years.

What's worse, you presume there is nothing you can do to improve. The prevailing attitude on campus is "You either have it or you don't!"

What nonsense!

Any student with average intelligence can improve his reading and study skills at least 3 times with a) better techniques, b) expert coaching, and c) controlled practice. And he can do it quickly—in time to dramatically increase his grades in the current semester.

For this is precisely what the Evelyn Wood course offers, and backs it up with an iron-clad, no-nonsense, written guarantee.

THE GUARANTEE

Any student who attends every Evelyn Wood class, completes the required practice, yet does not improve reading and study skills at least 3 times will be eligible to receive a full tuition refund.

Over 1,000,000 Graduates Over 95% SUCCESS!

Since 1959, three Presidents have invited Evelyn Wood instructors to teach their staffs how to read better. All in all, the list of famous graduates reads like Who's Who:

- | | | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Jackson Betts, U.S. Congress | Edward Kennedy, U.S. Congress | William Proxmire, U.S. Congress |
| Allan Cranston, U.S. Congress | Burt Lancaster, Actor | Herman Scheebell, U.S. Congress |
| John Dingell, U.S. Congress | Thomas J. McIntyre, U.S. Congress | George Segal, Actor |
| John Glenn, U.S. Congress | Joseph M. Montoya, U.S. Congress | J. Irving Whalley, U.S. Congress |

Why Do So Many Students Enroll?

This question was posed to several thousand college freshmen who had just enrolled in the Evelyn Wood course. The answers were varied, but mostly on the same wave length: 1) They wanted to reduce their study time; 2) They wanted to feel more confident in class, more in control; and 3) They wanted to learn more, to achieve better grades.

At the end of the course, each student was asked if his goals were met. Over 95% said yes. The other 5% received their tuition back.

Why Do Most Students Read Slowly?

Most students have no idea what their reading ability is. If they are typical, they read about 300 words per minute (or one page of a novel). Why is it that students read at virtually the same speed, considering how very different they all are?

The cause can be traced back to the First Grade. When we were taught to read, we were asked to read out loud, word-by-word. Later, in the Second Grade, we were asked to stop saying each word out loud. But we never really did. Fact is, you're saying these words right now—not out loud, but to yourself, one word at a time!

This means you read only as fast as you talk—about 250 to 300 words per minute. (As if to prove the point, Guinness's Book of World Records lists John F. Kennedy as delivering the fastest speech ever at 327 words per minute).

How Do You Learn To Read Faster? With The Same Comprehension?

At the Mini-Lesson you will find out how the Evelyn Wood course eliminates the habit of reading only one word at a time. How you can learn to read 3 or 4 words instead of only one. To see how natural this is, look at the dot in the middle of this phrase:

the grass · is green

Try as you may, you can't help but see the other words. With training, you learn to use this natural, but un-used potential. You learn to see groups of words simultaneously. This will double, triple, possibly quadruple your present ability.

This concept is diametrically opposed to the old-fashioned speed reading technique of picking out key phrases. In the Evelyn Wood course, skimming is a dirty word!

The PRICE BOILS DOWN TO $2 AN HOUR.

Read what the University of Illinois student paper said (Ed Sejud): "If a student avails himself of all the facilities by the (Evelyn Wood) Institute and attends all the class sessions, the price boils down to only about $2 an hour, cheaper than any private tutoring you'll ever find. Spread over four years, the course can save thousands of study hours and can probably affect a boost in a student's grade-point average. Assignments which once took days can be accomplished in a matter of hours, leaving much more time for other pursuits. The Institute estimates that it can save average students 350 hours of study time each semester—probably an understatement."

TAKE A FREE EVELYN WOOD MINI-LESSON THIS WEEK

Don't take anybody's word for it—not ours, not anybody's. We developed the Mini-Lesson so you could make up your own mind about the course. The Mini-Lesson lasts only 1 hour. During that short time, you have a chance to try your hand at it—to find out if it really can do the job for you. In 60 minutes over 80% of the audience increases reading speed. Just a little, but enough to know what it's like. At the Mini-Lesson you will find out how the Evelyn Wood technique handles difficult textbook material. How it improves memory and concentration. How it makes reading a pleasure instead of a chore. Let's face it, if the Evelyn Wood course is for real, you ought to know about it.
