Photographer's body found at Dallas hotel

United Press International
DALLAS — A newspaper photographer was found shot to death Thursday in his unlocked car parked at a hotel where he had gone on a picture assignment the night before, police said.
Larry Provart, 29, a photographer for the Dallas Morning News since 1972, was found about 1 p.m. with a camera around his neck and two beside him on the seat of his car which was parked at an outer parking lot at the Loews Anatole Hotel, said police spokesman Bob Shaw.

Judge jails two men for refusal to testify

United Press International
EL PASO — A federal judge has ordered two men jailed indefinitely for refusing to testify before a special grand jury that has been looking into organized crime and racketeering in a six-state area.
Jack Wayne Scarborough, 38, of Waterford, Mich., and David Michael Brummitt, 28, of Lenoir City, Tenn., were held in contempt for refusing to answer questions about bail bonds posted in their behalf by El Paso bail bondsman Victor Apodaca Jr. after their 1976 arrests on state marijuana possession charges.
U.S. District Judge William Sessions ordered the two men to nearby La Tuna Federal Correctional Institute where they will stay, unless they decide to testify, for the duration of the grand jury's term which runs until August 1980.
The grand jury has been looking into Apodaca's income tax affairs for several months in an investigation that includes a special Justice Department Task Force of Customs, Drug Enforcement and Internal Revenue Service agents.
The two men were arrested June 4, 1976, in Marfa near a burning aircraft filled with marijuana and 18 ounces of heroin. They were freed on reduced $25,000 bonds.
Brummitt pleaded guilty to marijuana possession charges in 83rd District Court in Marfa and paid a $2,000 fine, while charges against Scarborough were dismissed without explanation.

Typing error at fault in PUC discrepancy
United Press International
AUSTIN — A Public Utility Commission economist blames a typing error for the discrepancy in rates set by the PUC and those charged needy customers by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., the PUC advises that the phone company should be allowed a rate increase of $144 million.
"The company wasn't doing anything bad," PUC economist John Parsons said Wednesday. "The typist just left out '105 percent.'"
Consumer advocates earlier this week accused Southwestern of violating a 1978 PUC order setting cheap rates for so-called "lifeline" service by charging 105 percent of the amount authorized.
Parsons said the PUC order was supposed to read 105 percent of the rate for two-party service.
"It was just a blunder," she said.

LULAC plans San Antonio parade

SAN ANTONIO — The League of United Latin American Citizens, in cooperation with the Fiesta San Antonio Commission, is planning a Mexican-style parade to open the 1980 Fiesta.
The parade would become the fourth major Fiesta parade and would include a host of Mexican-American bands and charros and a number of mariachists and conjuntos from south of the border.
Ironically, Mexican-American groups heretofore have had little participation in the week-long Fiesta and LULAC has had a standing complaint that there has not been an Hispanic King of the Fiesta.
King Antonio reigns over the merriment and comes from the ranks of the Texas Cavaliers, an almost exclusively Anglo group.

Houston tornado damage set at $3 million

HOUSTON — Officials estimated $3 million worth of damage by a tornado that cut through a west Houston residential area Tuesday.
Harris County Civil Defense Director John Caswell said a survey by his damage assessment team indicated 10 homes were destroyed and 40 others suffered major damage. About 100 homes incurred some damage, Caswell said.

Gramm votes against pay hike

United Press International
WASHINGTON — Twelve Texas congressmen voted with the majority to help defeat an appropriations bill containing a 7 percent pay raise for congressmen and other high-paid federal workers.
Had the measure — which was defeated 212-196 — been approved, congressional salaries would have jumped to more than $61,000 a year from the current $57,600.
Rep. Phil Gramm, D-College Station, voted with Democratic Reps. Kika de la Garza, Martin Frost, Sam Hall, Jack Hightower, Abraham Kazen, Marvin Leath and Jim Mattox to defeat the bill.
All four Republicans — Reps. Bill Archer, Jim Collins, Tom Loeffler and Ron Paul — on Texas' 24-member congressional delegation voted against the appropriations bill.
Democratic Reps. Jack Brooks, Bob Eckhardt, Henry Gonzalez, Mickey Leland, Ray Roberts, Richard White, Charles Wilson, Jim Wright and Joe Wyatt voted for the salary raise.
Democratic Reps. Kent Hance, J.J. Pickle and Charles Stenholm did not vote.
