Wilson, Aggies still enjoying Lion lashing

By SEAN PETTY
Battalion Sports Editor

What can you say when your team is 1-0? You can say that you're pleased to be in the position of being able to play the game. The win has given us a lot of confidence because it was a team effort all the way. It was just an outstanding performance.

Another thing you can do is sit back and reap the national honors that go with the type of victory the Aggies had Saturday.

Wilson was named UPI national coach of the week, tailback Curtis Dickey was named national back of the week by Sports Illustrated and Southwest Conference offensive player of the week and linebacker Doug Carr was named SWC defensive player of the week, just to name a few.

There was a noticeable change in the mood from the previous press conferences. This week, Wilson would talk about how good the defense was, how good the kicking game was and most important, how good that first win feels.

Although there were many outstanding plays that keyed the victory, Wilson said, "I would have to pick four that made the difference."

The first and biggest would have to be Dickey's 69-yard touchdown run in the first quarter that put us back in the game immediately. It was the first positive thing that happened to the team all year.

Another big play was Carr's fumble recovery when the score was 14-7 and Penn St. had good field position. As it turned out, we took that turnover and moved in to score and make it 21-7.

A key play in the second half came when our defense held them on fourth and one. If they would have taken that one in, it would have made it very difficult for us.

And the play that really set us up for the fourth quarter was David Scott's punt return that set up our fourth score.

Wilson also singled out quarterback Mike Mosley for the level-headed game he played and his ability to turn certain losses into big gains.

Mike played probably his most secure game all year. He made some decisions in certain situations that kept us in the game and eliminated the mistakes we had been making that killed us the first two games.

The Aggies, who had lost seven fumbles in two games, fumbled one time which set up the Lions' first score.

Mosley watched freshman Gary Kubiak direct the Aggies' first play of the game from the sidelines and that was all. Kubiak went down and out with a hyperextended elbow and other Matt Millen broke through and Kubiak who landed the wrong way on his left arm.

"Not starting really took the pressure off me," Mosley said. "I was ready to help the team if they needed me in the first quarter or maybe not until the last minute of the game."

Everyone was behind Gary the whole week before the game so I knew it would be no problem. I'm just sorry he had to leave the game that way.

This game has really boosted my confidence. I read in one of the Houston papers last week that I wasn't a winner and that hurt me more than anything I had ever read. I guessed I showed 'em didn't I."

The entire Aggie team "showed 'em" as the offense ran at will outside and the defense kept Penn St. shut down.

"Carr and Mike Little were outstanding," Wilson said. "They made plays it seemed were impossible to make."

"The game went completely opposite of what we had planned. We thought we would have to pass the ball to move on them and not be able to control the ball on the ground. But as it turned out, we moved the ball better on the ground.

"We thought they were going to physically whip us in the trenches but we held our own. I'm very proud of John Osborn, (who started for the first time against Penn St.) Mike Robbins, Ed Pustejovsky and the whole offensive line.

"Defensively, we figured we would have to stop the run the whole game because of the size of their line but we forced them to pass. And forcing them to pass was playing right into our strong spot at this point."

While the Ags lost the services of Kubiak, they gained backup quarterback David Beal this week who has been out since the beginning of the season with a shoulder injury. "It's hard to believe we came out of that physical ball game without any serious injuries," Wilson said.

Wilson also mentioned punter David Appleby as one of the "outstandings" in the game.

"David's punting kept Penn St. in very poor field position all day. I'm very pleased with his performances, so far this season."

It was a festive mood in Cain Hall, and for good reason, but the serious business of preparing for Memphis State goes on as usual at Kyle Field.

Ali jives and tabs the Oilers

United Press International
HOUSTON — Former heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali visited the Houston Oilers practice Tuesday, sparred with several players and delivered a gem about running back Earl Campbell.

"I have a lot of speed, a lot of endurance, if Earl meets me, increase his insurance," Ali said after Campbell needled him about his age, weight and retirement.

"You've got grey hair. You're fat. You're old. You're a good used-to-be," Campbell teased.

"I want to take on five of you guys one time. Which five? C'mon. Which five?" joked Ali.

Ali arrived unannounced wearing a suit. He shadowboxed several rounds with running back Tim Wilson, defensive end Elvin Bethea and other players who suspended practice briefly to meet Ali.

"Last week, I murdered a rock, I murdered a stone, hospitalized a brick, so mean I make medicine sick," Ali chirped. "I dry up a drink of water, kill a dead tree, don't mess with Muhammad Ali."
