Phil beats brother Joe; Atlanta whips Houston

United Press International
ATLANTA — Phil Niekro out-pitched his brother, Joe, with an eight-hitter to become a 20-game winner for the third time Wednesday night and the Atlanta Braves virtually ended the Houston Astros' National League West pennant hopes with a 9-4 victory.

The loss dropped the Astros 2½ games behind Cincinnati in the NL West with only three games remaining.

In raising his record to 20-20, Niekro became the first NL pitcher since Irving Young of the Braves in 1905 to win and lose 20 games in a season. Phil also joined Joe as the only brother combination to both win 20 games in the same season in the NL. Joe was trying for his 21st victory Wednesday night, which would have been an Astros record, but lasted only innings and was charged with his 11th defeat.

Phil also had six strikeouts to raise his career total to 2,396, tying him with Sandy Koufax for 17th place on the all-time list.

Phil, who knocked in four runs, got the Braves off and running in the second inning when he doubled in two runs. He added a two-run single in the sixth.

The Braves widened their lead to 4-0 and chased Joe Niekro in the process in the third inning when Gary Matthews singled home Jerry Royster, who had led off with a double. Matthews later scored himself on a single by Barry Bonnell. Bonnell singled home another run in the sixth and Phil Niekro then gave the Braves a 7-1 lead with a bases-loaded single.

The Braves' final two runs came in the sixth on a two-run homer by Matthews, his 27th.

The first run off Phil Niekro came in the fifth and was unearned as Luis Pujols got on an error by first baseman Dale Murphy and went to third on another error by left fielder Bonnell. The run scored on an infield out.

The Astros added another run on a pinch-homer by Dave Bergman in the eighth and scored twice more in the ninth.
