'83 officers, senators to be elected Oct. 24

By SHERIE KELLER
Battalion Reporter

A special student election will be held Oct. 24 for the Class of '83 officers and senators.

Persons interested in running may file beginning Wednesday at the Student Government Office from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in Room 216 of the Memorial Student Center. The deadline is Oct. 10.

The filing fee is $1. After filing the student's name will appear on the election roster. Campaigning will begin after Oct. 10.

Officers positions include president, vice-president, secretary/treasurer and social secretary.

Freshmen who want to run for an office must have at least a 2.25 grade point ratio at mid-term.

The class officers will be in charge of the freshman ball, class picnic and council meetings.

Seven freshmen senator positions are also open. Senators must have a 2.25 GPR by the end of the semester. If this requirement is not met, the senator will be removed from his duties, said Bruce Russell, election commissioner.

These senators will be involved in the student senate, helping to write and pass bills that affect everyone on campus, he said.

"To be a class officer or senator is a great opportunity to become involved in campus activities and how the student government works," he said.

Students wanting more information about filing can call the student government office at 845-3051.

A&M dairy team to judge nationals

By STEVE CRITCHFIELD
Battalion Reporter

Texas A&M University's Dairy Cattle Judging Team will leave today on its long drive the national competition in Madison, Wis.

The three-member team of Janette Beverly, William Ernest and Chip Turner will compete against about 50 other teams on Wednesday.

Each member will judge five different breeds of dairy cows that have been separated into 10 four-cow classes, Beverly said. Up to five sets of reasons may be submitted by the members, giving them a chance to raise their scores by justifying their placing order of the cattle.

Beverly, also president of the A&M Dairy Science Club, said team scores are calculated by taking individual scores of team members.

Students may only participate in the judging team for one year, Beverly said. She said most wait until their junior or senior year to do themselves adequate practice at schools and local dairies.

The team will practice its judging at dairies and universities en route to Wisconsin.

No more than two contests can be entered by each team before national finals, Beverly said. Aggie team has participated once this year, claiming a first title in Fort Worth last spring.

Cold shoulder ends models to bare again

United Press International
SAN JOSE, Calif. — The art class models at California State University are baring their bodies again, ending their three-week, clothes-on strike.

The 29 striking models agreed to go back to work after the administration promised to do its best to prove salaries and warm up classrooms.

The models had been upset pay — $4 an hour — and work conditions. Many complained were so cold in the classrooms got goose bumps.
