Dallas finally looking like Super Bowl Cowboys

United Press International
IRVING — For the first time this season, the Dallas Cowboys could look in the mirror Sunday and recognize themselves.

Dallas came up with 119 rushing yards from Tony Dorsett, two touchdown passes from Roger Staubach, three interceptions, kept pressure on the quarterback all day and did not fumble the ball a single time.

It's hard for all of that to add up to anything but a victory, and that's what the Cowboys got — a 38-13 win over the winless Cincinnati Bengals.

Dallas was in need of a quality performance. The Cowboys had struggled to win their first three games and then were flattened last Monday night by the Cleveland Browns.

"This was the first game that we had that good feeling," said Dallas coach Tom Landry. "Everything just seemed to click."

"We had been losing our confidence quite a bit after that Monday night game and we hadn't played well in the other three. So this was a key confidence builder."

The Cowboys, of course, did not build their confidence against a Super Bowl contender. The Bengals have lost all five starts and seemed to wilt Sunday in the heat that reached 100 degrees on the artificial surface.

But a win is a win and this one allowed the Cowboys to keep pace at 4-1 with the Washington Redskins and Philadelphia Eagles.

"Their third-down conversions (10 of 15) killed us," said Cincinnati coach Homer Rice. "And our defense hasn't been playing well. The intensity isn't there. We're not getting the pass rush (Staubach was not sacked Sunday) that we did last year."

"Despite the loss I think we're going to get things turned around and I know we had better. I don't think we're an 0-5 football team. We have too many good football players."

Cincinnati jumped to a 3-0 lead the first time it had the ball Sunday, but on the Bengals' next possession strong safety Randy Hughes intercepted a pass by Ken Anderson and ran it 68 yards to the Cincinnati 3-yard line. It was all downhill from there.

Fullback Scott Laidlaw scored on the next play and he scored again early in the second quarter on a 1-yard run after the Cowboys had driven 69 yards. Another long drive of 83 yards ended in a 3-yard touchdown throw from Staubach to Billy Joe DuPree and gave Dallas a 21-6 halftime lead.

After Anderson drove Cincinnati to a touchdown early in the second half, coming on a 10-yard pass to tight end Don Bass, Dallas struck back on a 26-yard field goal by Rafael Septien and then put the game out of reach.

Rookie Aaron Mitchell intercepted another Anderson pass, ran it back 36 yards, and set up a 9-yard touchdown throw from Staubach to Tony Hill. Ron Springs tackled on a 1-yard scoring plunge with nine seconds to play.

"I have been picking up a lot of work," said Dorsett, who had a second 100-yard day of the season and who had 81 yards in the quarter alone.

"It was a big plus to start the ball early and control the game. It seemed like I was always able to break one. I came close a few times."

Hill caught five passes for 47 yards and Drew Pearson caught three to reach the 300-yard plateau.

"The difference in our game today was no fumbles and turnovers by the defense," said Pearson. "Right now I have only one game to be a starter on a Super Bowl championship team."

And for the first time this season the Cowboys looked as if they might be one.

Pearson grabs 300th pass

United Press International
IRVING — Drew Pearson, in his seventh year of catching passes in the National Football League, grabbed his 300th Sunday in Dallas' 38-13 victory over Cincinnati and admitted to some surprise after the game.

"I really did not know I was that close," said Pearson. "It makes me feel a little old. I don't know about the next 300, but I imagine they will come pretty tough."

The leader of the Drew Pearson fan club, however, took the opportunity to praise the talented player.

"Drew has been special to me a long time," said quarter-back Roger Staubach. "We worked together all spring when he was an agent. Tony Hill is really shining up as a fine receiver and can make some fantastic catches."

"I have the same confidence in him I have in Drew, and that's a lot."
