THE BATTALION Page 11

CAMPUS NAMES

Rodenberger joins extension service

Dr. Lou Rodenberger, who has taught in Texas A&M University's College of Liberal Arts for more than 10 years, has joined the Texas Agricultural Extension Service as communications specialist for energy. Dr. William E. Tedrick, head of the Department of Agricultural Communications, said Rodenberger will work with energy-related publications, mass media and educational materials for agricultural produc-

Rodenberger taught English, American literature and litera-ture of the Southwest at Texas A&M from 1967 through 1978. She has B.A. and B.S. degrees from Texas Women's University, Denton, and a M.A. and Ph.D. in English from Texas A&M.

M.H. Ivins appointed assistant grad dean

M.H. "Jack" Ivins Jr., retired Marine Corps colonel who served the past four years as pro-fessor of naval science at Texas A&M University, has joined the university as assistant to the dean of the Graduate College.

ins

ards

Ivins' primary responsibility will be recruiting students for Texas A&M's graduate program with special attention given to recruiting students from military services, four-year colleges, uni-versities with limited graduate offerings and predominantly black colleges. He will also be liaison to military servies for enrollment of personnel at both undergraduate and graduate

He holds an undergraduate degree in economics from Dickinson College and master's degree in educational administration from Boston University.

3 senior cadets given $1,000 Cain award

Texas A&M University senior cadets William D. Dugat III, Weslaco, Timothy L. Ferree, York, Pa., and Coe D. Kroese, Annandale, Va., were presented Wofford Cain Boot and Saber awards. The three $1,000 awards were presented at a recent ceremony when Texas A&M's Board of Regents dined with the Corps of Cadets.

The Cain award is presented annually to the outstanding senior in each ROTC program at the start of the school year. It is designed to help recipients pay for senior boots and uniforms.

Adkisson awarded entomology honor

Dr. Perry L. Adkisson, Texas A&M University's vice president for agriculture and renewable resources, was named Distin-guished Professor of Entomology by the Texas A&M University System Board of Regents. Adkisson was recognized for research in integrated pest management systems and insect physiology. He is the first Texas A&M professor appointed to the National Academy of Sciences for work done here.

Adkisson formerly headed Texas A&M's Department of Entomology and has been on the Texas A&M faculty since 1958. He has bachelors and masters degrees from the University of Arkansas and a doctorate from Kansas State University.

Laine gets award to continue studies

Texas A&M University graduate medical student Glen Laine, 30, received a three-year post-doctoral award of $42,000 from the National Institute of Health to continue studies of ascites, the accumulation of fluid in the abdomen that is associated with heart failure, liver damage and other conditions.

Laine, who is completing a Ph.D. in medical physiology at Texas A&M, was one of eight researchers selected nationally for an NIH award.

Laine is a graduate of Garden Grove (Calif.) High School and earned B.S. and M.S. degrees from Southwestern Louisiana University.

Hartley named professor emeritus

Dr. Herman O. Hartley, a distinguished professor of statistics has been named distinguished professor emeritus at Texas A&M University.

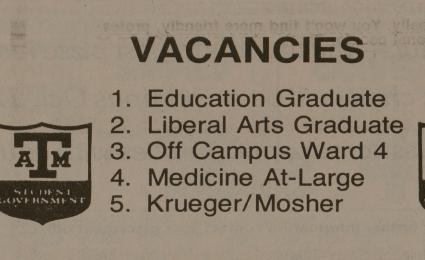

He retires from active teaching Jan. 1 after having served 14 years as the first director of the then Graduate Institute of Statistics.

During his 16 years at Texas A&M, Hartley served as president of the Biometric Society and is currently president of the American Statistical Association. He is the author of nearly 150 published papers and books in the field of statistics.

YOUR

Texas A&M University Student Senate has several vacancies that must be filled. Those interested in one of these positions should pick up an application in the Student Government office, Room 216C of the MSC. The deadline for application is 5:00 p.m., Monday, Oct. 15. For more information contact the Student Government office at 845-3051.

'Day at the Fountain' offers information, fun

By LAURA CORTEZ

Battalion Reporter There may be a leopard on campus today. The big cat, on loan from the Central Texas Zoo in Waco, is to be here promoting the MSC Council and Directorate's first "Day at the

A three-ring circus, a Mexican fiesta and a mime performance are just a few of the events scheduled for Thursday around Rudder Fountain. The MSC Council and Directorate is sponsoring the "Day at the Fountain," at which the 20 different MSC committees will conduct short performances or demonstrations symbolic of their functions Some of the committees that will be participating are Town Hall, Political Forum, SCONA and the Opera and Performing Arts Soci-

Cheri Leavitt, MSC director of public relations, said the purpose of the day is to tell students about the various MSC committees.

"Hopefully, we'll let the students know about the many opportunities they have to get involved in the various MSC programs, said

The MSC Council and Directorate is made up of a governing body and the 20 committees, which together put on more than 600 programs a year

Leavitt said the Council and Directorate operates on a budget of $1.25 million. Funds come from Student Service Fees, outside donations and admission fees.

LUTHERAN

STUDENT MOVEMENT

MONTHLY MEETING TONIGHT 305 RUDDER 7:30 P.M.

COME TO FIND OUT MORE ABOUT LOCAL AND NATIONAL LSM AND TO FELLOWSHIP WITH OTHER CHRIST-IANS.

Mrs. Dorothy Dunn, who introduced the SEBRING METHOD to the Brazos Valley, utilizes her expertise in creating a new image for a Guys & Gals customer. Mrs. Dunn has been in the beauty business locally for 6 years. She invites new & established local customers to visit her at her new location:

GUYS & GALS 4103 Texas Avenue S., Bryan 846-5018 Suite 208

ET POOH'S Babysit For You

Enjoy Aggie football this season or an afternoon of shopping

$700 package for 5 hrs. of FUN! 12:30 to 5:30 PM

This package includes Lunch, Skating, Bumper Cars, Golf and Snacks.

Also Available: Go Karts, Baseball Batting, Shooting Gallery, Water Slide and Pin Ball.

For information call 693-5737

OPEN 10 A.M.-11 P.M.

Across from College Station Water Tower

PRESENTS FRIDAY OCTOBER 12 8:00 p.m. G. ROLLIE WHITE

MSC TOWN HALL

TICKETS: $3.50, $4.25, $4.75 TICKETS & INFORMATION M.S.C. BOX OFFICE 845-2916

OVERNME

