Golden Triangle means football

United Press International
Around Texas' Golden Triangle, the competition in District 9-AAA is known as the toughest anywhere. This year is no different, and two of the state's four top-rated teams are from the same zone in that district. "Some coaches may be looking ahead to bi-district and the playoffs, but around this league we just look to the next game," Beaumont Hebert coach Alexander Durley told UPI. "All we can think about right now is Silsbee."
"All five teams in the zone are capable of winning it, and we feel they would win most districts across the state," Durley said.

The Hebert-Silsbee game is just one of many important Texas high school football games scheduled this weekend. In the same district, Class AAA top-ranked Jasper hosts Little Cypress. And a key Class AAAA battle finds top-ranked Abilene Cooper at eighth-rated Midland Lee.
In other classes, AA's top-ranked Kenedy plays at Goliad and A's top-rated China Spring is at Hamilton.
Plano, No. 2 in Class AAAA, attempts to get a tighter grip on District 13 this week when the Wildcats host Richardson. And, No. 3 Conroe will travel to Houston Cypress Creek while No. 4 La Porte hosts Pasadena Dobie. Fifth-ranked Temple plays at Killeen Ellison, sixth-ranked San Antonio Judson hosts San Antonio Harlandale, seventh-ranked Killeen goes to Bryan, ninth-ranked Houston Klein meets Houston McCullough, and tenth-rated Lubbock Monterey hosts Plainview.

Paris, second-ranked in Class AAA, hosts Daingerfield, third-ranked Kerrville hosts Pleasanton, fifth-ranked Huntsville is at A&M Consolidated.

Oilers to stay in old facility

United Press International
HOUSTON — Houston Oilers owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, who last month announced plans to build a suburban multi-million-dollar training facility "second to none" in the NFL, Thursday said high interest rates had forced a delay.
Adams announced a year's postponement in the project and said the seven-acre plot in suburban Missouri City, Texas, had not been bought.

Adams said the new facility's location would depend on the availability of the land 12 months from now.
"The decision to postpone developing the Oilers new multimillion-dollar facility was predicated on the shortage of funds available for long-term borrowing and the extremely high interest rates being charged for short-term borrowing," Adams said.

The Oilers will continue to train at a cramped, outmoded, 15-year-old facility admittedly among the worst in the NFL. The current training site is across the street from Adams' APC Building.
