

Pro football action

Cowboys top Cardinals

United Press International
IRVING, Texas — Two Roger Staubach touchdown passes helped offset an NFL record 108-yard kickoff return by Roy Green Sunday and brought Dallas a 22-13 win over St. Louis, leaving the Cowboys with the best record in the league and in sole possession of the NFC East lead.

Staubach brought the lethargic Cowboys to life in the second quarter with touchdown throws of 10 yards each to tight end Billy Joe DuPree and flanker Tony Hill.

That gave Dallas an 11-point cushion, but following Hill's score Green took the kickoff eight-yards deep in the end zone and went the distance almost untouched for the longest kickoff return in the 59-year history of the NFL.

The return wiped out the previous mark of 106 yards owned by Al Carmichael of Green Bay (1956) and Noland Smith of Kansas City (1967).

The Cowboys closed off St. Louis after that kickoff return, Dallas' defense sacking St. Louis quarterback Jim Hart seven times. But Dallas could not put the game away until, following a Hart fumble, Rafael Septien kicked a 29-yard field goal with 9:59 to play.

Dallas moved to 7-1 at the midpoint of the season, the top record in the NFL. And with Philadelphia's loss to Washington earlier in the day, the Cowboys moved a game in front of the Eagles and Redskins in the division standings.

St. Louis dropped to 2-6. St. Louis took a 6-3 lead in the first quarter on field goals of 51 and 41 yards by Steve Little while Septien started Dallas' scoring with a 51-yard field goal of his own. Little's long kick equaled a St. Louis record.

Dallas then scored on two straight possessions to apparently take control of the game. Staubach, who completed 11 of 25 passes for 164 yards, hit DuPree with a 10 yarder to put the Cowboys in front.

Dallas next controlled the ball for 8:08, driving 96 yards and converting four third downs before Staubach hit Hill with their 10-yard scoring connection.

Green's kickoff return cut the St. Louis deficit to 17-13 at the half and the only scoring in the final two quarters came on a Dallas safety — Cardinals' center Tom Brahaney snapping the ball into the end zone from the 34-yard line on a would-be punt — and Septien's fourth quarter field goal.

Dallas' Tony Dorsett went over the 100 yard rushing mark for the fourth consecutive week, gaining 106 yards on 19 carries. But 41 of those yards came on the opening play of the game and he was held relatively in check for the rest of the afternoon.

Hart, playing with a sore left foot protected by a specially designed shoe, managed just 16 completions on 38 attempts for 155 yards. His seven sacks lost 58 yards.

St. Louis rookie running back Ottis Anderson, who picked up 193 yards against Dallas in the opening game of the season, gained 105 more Sunday and thus became only the third rusher to ever have two 100-yard-plus days against Dallas.

The other two were Cleveland Brown's great Jim Brown and the Cardinals' John David Crow.

Seahawks fly by bumbling Oilers

United Press International
SEATTLE — Steve Largent caught touchdown passes of 45 and 55 yards from Jim Zorn, and Cornell Webster returned a fumble 54 yards for another score Sunday to lead the Seattle Seahawks to a 34-14 victory over the Houston Oilers.

Zorn, who completed 18-of-23 passes for 252 yards, opened the game with 11 consecutive completions to set a club record, including a 12-yard touchdown toss to Sherman Smith on the first drive of the game.

Houston, which dropped a half-game behind Pittsburgh in the AFC Central Division, got its only first-half touchdown on a 9-yard pass from Dan Pastorini to tight end Mike Barber, tying the contest 7-7 with 10:26 left in the second period.

Earl Campbell, the leading rusher in the NFL coming into the game, was suffering from a bruised thigh and was limited to just four yards on three carries.

Seattle went ahead for good, 14-7 with 8:27 left in the second period when Zorn found Largent five yards behind the Oiler secondary on the right sideline for a 45-yard scoring strike.

Largent, who was released by the Oilers in the 1976 preseason before being signed by Seattle, slipped behind Houston's deep coverage for a 55-yard touchdown throw from Zorn on the first play of the fourth quarter to boost Seattle's lead to 27-7.

Seattle, 3-5, added their final touchdown with 12:58 left in the game when Ronnie Coleman caught and then fumbled a pass from Pastorini. Webster picked up the loose ball on his own 46 and outraced the Houston quarterback to the end zone.

Already suffering from Campbell's injury, the Oilers' problems were compounded when his replacement, Rob Carpenter, left the game early in the second quarter with a strained lower back. Houston managed just 38 yards rushing in the first two periods.

Efren Herrera kicked field goals of 48 and 30 yards in the third quarter to increase Seattle's lead to 20-7. Houston was still in the game until Largent's second touchdown grab but victimized itself with costly holding and offensive pass interference penalties in the third quarter that cut off two potential scoring drives near midfield.

The interference penalty, called on Ken Burrough, wiped out a 19-yard gain. Pastorini was sacked on the next play and after an Oiler punt and personal foul penalty, Seattle took over on its own 47. Three plays later, and Largent teamed with the second touchdown pass to the game out of reach.

Houston added a touch with 2:48 remaining in the game when Coleman caught a toss from Pastorini. Zorn was replaced early in the fourth quarter by Sam Adams but Zorn's productivity for the Seahawks, who had been victimized for over 300 passing in each of their games.

Cardinals' Green makes history

United Press International
IRVING, Texas — The longest kickoff return in National Football League history may have been set Sunday because the Dallas Cowboys' coverage team didn't expect Roy Green to run the ball out of the end zone.

At least that was the opinion of Dallas Cowboys coach Tom Landry. Green covered 108 yards with his kickoff return late in the first half of Dallas' 22-13 win over St. Louis, breaking the record of 106 yards owned by Al Carmichael of Green Bay and Noland Smith of Kansas City.

"I guess someday the record will be broken, maybe by me," said Green, a rookie out of Henderson State who plays in the Cardinals' defensive backfield when not returning kicks.

"Everybody had good position, especially the first two blocks I had. The kick was deep and their coverage didn't have time to get downfield. That opened it up for me."

Landry said he thought the Cowboys' specialty team was taken by surprise.

"I'll have to look at the film, but I think our players relaxed," Landry said. "It looked like the kick was so deep that he wouldn't bring it out and I thought some of our players might have pulled up. We have a rule. If the kickoff is more than five yards deep, we don't return it."

Cowboys officials, after the game, measured the point at which Green's back foot came down when he caught the ball and their measurements confirmed Green's yardage should be written down as a record-breaking 108 yards.

Green's run likely will be reviewed by NFL officials in game films for a final confirmation.

Hayes gets out for reunion

United Press International
DALLAS — The Dallas Cowboys, celebrating their 20th year as a team, honored 20 of the club's star players Sunday, including former wide receiver Bob Hayes.

Hayes is serving a two-to-five-year prison sentence for a drug violation and received a five-day furlough from the Texas Department of Corrections so he could attend the festivities.

A spokesman for the prison system said Hayes was unescorted during his time away from prison.

Dallas coach Tom Landry, honored along with the players during halftime of the Dallas-St. Louis game, said whatever success the team has had was caused by those who played the game.

"For all us who have spent our lives in football, we realize the bottom line is what takes place on the playing field," Landry told the sellout crowd at Texas Stadium. "The applause belongs to the players who have played for the Dallas Cowboys."

THE GREAT ESCAPE.

You dream about it at night... the day you can close your books, get out of this place and forget about studying for awhile.

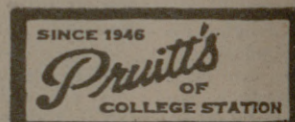

Well, the Great Escape is here... this weekend, with Greyhound. Escape to the country or go see some friends. Just decide which escape route you want and we'll do the rest.

We'll get you out of town and away from the books so you can clear your head. It doesn't cost much and it'll do you a world of good.

So make the Great Escape this weekend... with Greyhound.

To	One-Way	Round-Trip	Depart	Arrive
Houston	7.20	13.50	4:00 p.m.	6:10 p.m.
Austin	9.85	18.75	10:15 a.m.	12:40 p.m.
Waco	7.25	13.80	2:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
Huntsville	4.75	9.05	5:15 p.m.	6:25 p.m.
Dallas	13.00	24.70	2:50 p.m.	7:35 p.m.

(Prices subject to change.)

318 Jersey St.
693-9357

Two blocks from Kyle Southside Shopping Co.

McDONALD'S INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

At University Drive

At Manor East Mall

CAUGHT IN THE ACTION this week is Judy Denman, the new All-University women's diving champ. Judy, a sophomore from Conroe, dove for Mosher Hall. Judy is considering a career in physical therapy. She also runs IM Cross-country. She was on her high school diving team and also the track team. She has been diving for four years. Judy loves to play ping-pong, waterski and has been playing classical piano for twelve years. She likes Intramurals because it gives her the chance to compete and keep in shape.

It's In The Pins

IM Bowling is a great event whether you are playing or just watching. Here are some recent highlights.

Squadron 2 squeaked past F-2 by 16 points, 562-546. High scorers for Squadron 2 were Mike Probst and Billy Reed with 163 points each. Dan Urban was high bowler for F-1 with 163 points, followed by Tom Tengler's 156 points. A total of 8 strikes and 16 spares were tallied for Squadron 2; 6 strikes and 18 spares were bowled for F-1. Other team members were Squadron 2's, Jason Roosma and Jim Coffman and F-1's Brett Van Delemn and James Wendlandt.

Squadron 5 bested Fanatic 15 with a total of 541-500. Craig Bell and Bill Little were high scorers for Squadron 5 with 152 and 145 respectively. Jeff Hotz with a total of 134 and Juan Ancisco with 127 led the way to Fanatic 15's 6 strikes and 13 spares.

Squadron 5 totaled 10 strikes and 10 spares. John Silva and Steve Byrne bowled for Fanatic 15 and Squadron 5's team was rounded out by Gary Blanton and Dave Tucker.

Squadron 3 Fish outscored C-2 Fish, 457 to 366. C-2 bowled 2 strikes and 7 spares. Squadron 3 bowled 4 strikes and 7 spares. Squadron 3 bowled 4 strikes and 10 spares. High scorer for Squadron 3 was Don Preece.

Bob Culpepper and Paul Dockery tied for high bowler for C-2. Tim O'Neal and Joe Bietter completed C-2's teams, and Squadron 3's team included Mitch Wagnon, Boyd Bradford, and Dan Kardell.

You Know It's A Good Day When

Your team wins both the volleyball game and the football game. It doesn't rain before your flickerball game. Your IM T-shirt didn't shrink in the wash. Your name is spelled correctly in the "McDonald's Highlights."

The "I Spy" photographer this week selects John Miller as eligible for a Be Our Guest Card for free food for McDonald's. John is pictured here taking a swing during Intramural Home Run hitting contest.

Acknowledgments

This ad is sponsored by your local MacDonald Restaurants at University Drive and Manor East

Mall. Stories by Michelle Stein, Pictures by Gary Re...

snip & clip

CLOSING ENTRIES:
Racquetball doubles Tuesday, October 23
Archery singles & doubles Tuesday, October 23

OPENING ENTRIES:
Table Tennis doubles Monday, October 22
Cross-Country Monday, October 22

SPECIAL EVENTS:
Putt-Putt Golf Tuesday, October 23
Swimming Divisionals 6:00 p.m. Pooh's Park Monday, October 22
Swimming All-University Finals Wednesday, October 24

The Winner's Circle

FOR THE DIVES--
The new diving champs have won their places in the 1979-80 record book. Congratulations to these new winners: Judy Denman - Mosher and Mark Scott - fruit of the Loom

AT OLSEN FIELD--
The old ball field saw plenty of action during the IM Home Run Hitting contest. Congratulations and laurel leaf crown to Mark James and Diane Fisk

IM SPORT SHORTS

Sports Shorts

If countryside and jogging appeal to you, IM has just the thing for you. CROSS COUNTRY is opening for entries today. Sprint on down to the IM office to sign up.

TABLE TENNIS doubles is opening for entries today. Grab your partner and come sign up in Deware Fieldhouse. It's a table of fun.