Auto sales still down in October

United Press International
DETROIT — The auto industry's sales slump has dragged into October, failing to achieve analysts expected from new introductions.
Even though all 1980 models were recently introduced, automakers Wednesday reported percent sales decline compared with the same year — when there were new introductions.
The showing surprised analysts, who expected a dip of between 7 and 10 percent only Ford Motor Co. showed year-to-year increase, a 2.5 percent boost from 1978 levels with 74,938 cars.
The five U.S. automakers, 268,100 cars in mid-October, pared with 286,945 in the period last year.
The showing was a slight improvement over early October, which slumped sharply as model introductory period year. For the first 20 days of the month, auto industry sales were 21.1 percent from one year ago.
So far this year, U.S. automakers have sold 6,907,578 cars, 6.6 percent from 1978.
General Motors Corp. said 160,726 domestically built cars, down 8.4 percent, and Chrysler Corp. recorded a decline of 10 percent from 33,042 last year, 25,030 this year.
Volkswagen of America reported sales of 2,412 U.S.-built cars against no comparable figure year, while American Motors sales were estimated at 5,000. AMC only reports its sales in the second quarter.
Walter S. Walla, Ford vice president and Ford Division general manager, attributed the sales customer interest in the "more fuel efficient" 1980 models.

Gov. Brown greeted by high

United Press International
NEW YORK — California Gov. Jerry Brown got a lemon on the face Thursday when he stepped out to an appearance in New York.
The governor, hauled by Yippee rower Aron Kay, hit the governor's side of his face as he stepped school entrance where a band playing Beethoven's "Für Elise" in his arrival.
"And they say campaign is a piece of cake," said Brown. "The thing that grips me is the on my diet."
Kay, who was not arrested, the action was a "nonviolent" passion, he undertook because he was upset that Brown was going up to Howard Jarvis, who California's tax-cutting Proposition 13 drive, and not doing anything about prison reform in his state.
Brown, an unannounced nomination, delivered his speech on economics — after a brief clean up in the men's room.
