

Halloween's still time for ghosting, ghouling

From ghoulies and ghosties and long-leggety beasties
And things that go bump in the night
Good Lord, deliver us!

Not content with a normal jack-o-lantern, Johnny Brickey, right, and Randy Mitchell harvested this Texas-size 100-pound pumpkin from the Brickey family farm near Canton.

There's room for love at Halloween too, as both the hunchback and Playboy bunny above top
