Festival to highlight groups

A festival of arts is to be held on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. in the assembly room of the Brazos Cen-

The event is being organized by the Arts Council of Brazos Valley and its aim is to acquaint the community with the arts council and its affiliated groups. Admission is free and refreshments will be provided.

Member groups of the arts council will provide demonstrations, exhibits, and entertainment.

Among the groups represented will be the Spinners and Weaving Guild, the Embroiderers Guild, the Brazos Valley Art League, the Friends of the Library, Stage Cen-ter, the Nature Museum, OPAS, the Poetry Society, the Orchestra and Community Singers.

Call in Tecate Trio Bravo. An icy, red can of Tecate Beer imported from Mexico, topped with lemon and salt. It takes your thirst and puts it away!

Susan B. Anthony was memorialized last July when the United States Mint minted a dollar coin bearing her picture. The move was designed to save the govern-ment an estimated $17 million annually in printing costs.

But because the coin is so close in size to the quarter, it has not become popular with consumers.

"The estimated life of a dollar bill is 18 months, while the coin may last as long as 15 years," said Cathy
