McIvor to start against Ags

United Press International
AUSTIN — Texas Longhorns coach Fred Akers said Thursday Rick McIvor would start at quarterback Saturday against Texas A&M.
Sophomore quarterback Donnie

Little is still being bothered by a foot injury, Akers said. The Texas coach also announced that LeRoy King and Brad Beck would be the starting running backs for Texas, which lost both A.J. Jones and Rodney Tate to injuries last Saturday.

Holtz named SWC coach of year

United Press International
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Arkansas football coach Lou Holtz, who took an inexperienced, injury-marred fleet of Razorbacks on an incredible journey to a share of the Southwest Conference championship, was named United Press International's SWC Coach of the Year.
Although youthful, the Razorbacks were talented and Holtz molded them into a solid unit.

"This was the only 10-1 team in the country in which the losing teams always thought they should have won," Holtz said. "We are not impressive on film, but this team knows something about winning."
In his three years at Arkansas, Holtz has compiled a 30-4-1 record. He is the only Razorbacks coach in history to win that many consecutive seasons and still have one game to go in the Cotton or Sugar Bowl.

"I think naturally in coaches love to receive that honor," Holtz said. "So many times the older you get, coach of the year is a disservice to the players and Arkansas this year."
