5 vow to continue prison fast

United Press International
SAN ANTONIO—While five Iranian students vowed to continue their 4-day-old hunger strike in the Bexar County Jail, city officials and religious leaders Thursday called for restraint during the stay of deposed Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi at Lackland Air Force Base.
Jalil Rezal, Ali-Seyed Fanaikhat, Farshad Rafizadeh, Mohsen Towlait and Fazhd Furooz-Andeh, jailed Wednesday on misdemeanor charges of blocking a passageway, refused an offer of release if they would promise not to return to the steps of city hall.
The five Iranians said they would not post their $1,500 bonds and would instead continue their fast at the jail, consuming only a cup of tea with three sugar cubes every eight hours.
"They heard a radio commentator say he didn't think they were really going without food," said the Iranians' attorney, Louis Linden. "So they decided to refuse bond to prove they were fasting. They took great offense at that remark."
Police stepped in at noon Wednesday and took the Iranians into "protective custody" as about 20 counter-demonstrators threatened to charge them.
"We believe we will put more people on the hunger strike," said Mohammad Kamiab, a spokesman for the Iranian Muslim Association which has been denied a parade permit to protest the shah's presence.
"The students who were fasting there (city hall) have been humiliated and people have tried to beat them up. The city is shutting out the Iranian students from telling the truth to the American people."

"We question whether it is the policy of the city to protect one man, the shah, better than the Iranian students," he said.
Another student, Mehdi Hadjin, said the five students might die of starvation because of the hunger strike.
"We talked to them last night and they are in very bad shape and feel a lot of weakness," Hadjin said. "The Iranian Muslim Organization has such strong feelings toward the shah that we are all willing to die for this."
An angry crowd, which at one time contained as many as 200 persons, gathered at city hall and taunted the Iranians — making obscene gestures, cursing, threatening to hurt them and eating hamburgers and fried chicken with exaggerated pleasure in front of the hunger strikers.
"It has been my goal from the very beginning of learning that the shah of Iran had come to Lackland to urge that we conduct ourselves with dignity and restraint," said Lila Cockrell, in calling for a

Texas schools make 'most segregated' list

United Press International
A division of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has named nine Texas school districts as among the 100 most segregated in the nation, but officials in the schools named said Thursday they were ignorant of the basis on which HEW made its judgments.
"We have not received any kind of report or documentation of any kind from HEW," said Dr. O.C. "Mike" Taylor, superintendent of the South Park School District in Beaumont.

South Park was ranked fifth in the nation by the civil rights division of HEW and was the highest ranking Texas school in the report. Taylor, in a prepared statement, said he would not issue any comment on the HEW list until he had seen a formal report.
South Park was led on the list by the Leflore County School District in Mississippi, Southeast Delco School District in Pennsylvania, the Cleveland City School District and the St. Louis Public Schools.
Texas schools also on the list were

Look-alikes are set free in ID swap

United Press International
CORPUS CHRISTI—Two men swapped identification and, with a little help from the Border Patrol, both are free today.
Officials at the Nueces County Jail said Arturo M. Lopez, 23, was held on charges of felony theft when he was held with a group of Mexican aliens scheduled to be deported.
According to other prison reports, Lopez noticed he and a young Alfredo Estrada Barrientos looked alike.
When Border Patrol agents came to pick up the prisoners for deportation, Lopez took the place of Barrientos, prisoners said. Lopez was deported to Mexico.
Barrientos was released by Border Patrol to be freed in Mexico.
