

copies • High Quality
3 1/2¢ • Quick Service
• No Minimums
• Large Orders
• Legal Size 4 1/2" x 6 1/2"
OVERNIGHT RATES — 44¢ DURING THE DAY

Reductions & Dissertations
Collation & Binding & Padding

WE HAVE A XEROX 9400 — THE BEST COPYING MACHINE IN THE WORLD!

Kinko's Graphics, Inc.
201 College Main St. (713)846-9508

the sports

Staubach's arm skins Washington, 35-34

United Press International
IRVING, Texas — Roger Staubach called on all his big game experience Sunday and, with the division championship on the line, combined with his heady corps of receivers to win a game that looked for all the world to be lost.

Two times Staubach rallied his troops in as pulsating a game as the National Football League can turn out, the final comeback ending with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Tony Hill only 39 seconds from the gun.

That touchdown throw, Staubach's third of the day, brought Dallas a 35-34 victory over Washington, gave the Cowboys the NFC East title and knocked the Redskins out of the playoffs just as it seemed they were going to be division champions.

"It was a fantastic game," said Dallas coach Tom Landry. "We've done it before in this type of situation and Roger knows he can do it."

"What else can I say about him. He is super in this type of situation."

For the Redskins, however, there could only be desolation. Not only had Washington lost to its bitterest rival, but it had gone from a championship position to being out of the playoffs altogether in the span of a few seconds.

"I'm heart broken," said Redskins coach Jack Pardee. "Not just for myself, but for the players. I told them I was proud of them, that I love them, and that they had nothing to be ashamed of."

Dallas had overcome a 17-point deficit earlier in the game and appeared to have taken control of the contest in the third quarter.

But Washington exploded for 17 points in the fourth period, the last of them coming on a 66-yard touchdown run by John Riggins that gave the Redskins a 34-21 lead with 6:54 to go.

The Cowboys got a flickering of hope, however, when Washington running back Clarence Harmon fumbled the ball away at Dallas' 41 with 3:41 to play.

Staubach promptly drove Dallas 59 yards in three plays and hit Ron Springs with a 26-yard touchdown pass that cut the deficit to six points.

Dallas held Washington after the kickoff, tackle Larry Cole making a third-down stop of Riggins. Staubach then directed Dallas 75 yards in seven plays with the game winner coming on a lob pass from Staubach to Hill.

Washington was knocked out of the playoffs, despite finishing with the same record as the Chicago Bears because Chicago had a better point differential for all 16 games. Chicago saw to that earlier in the day by mashing St. Louis, 42-6.

Washington leaped in front, scoring on a 24-yard field goal by Mark Moseley, a one-yard run by quarterback Joe Theismann, and a 55-yard touchdown pass from Theismann to Benny Malone.

Dallas then started its first comeback, scoring on a one-yard run by Springs, on a 26-yard pass from Staubach to Preston Pearson with nine seconds left in the first half, and on a two-yard run by Robert Newhouse early in the second half that put Dallas in front.

Then the Redskins erupted to 17 fourth-quarter points, highlighted by an 80-yard drive that ended in a field goal, a key interception by safety Mark Murphy, an interference penalty in the end zone against Dallas' Cliff Harris and two touchdowns by Riggins — the first one yard and the second 66 yards. It was the longest run of Riggins' career and gave him his most successful season.

Dallas will first appear in the playoffs on the weekend of Dec. 29-30 against either Chicago (if the Bears beat Philadelphia in a wild card game next week) or Los Angeles.

Staubach, finishing the season as the NFL's leading passer, completed 24 of 42 passes for 336 yards and three touchdowns. Riggins, known more for his lumbering than for his long distance runs, picked up 151 yards on 22 carries.

The winning touchdown drive began at the Cowboys 25 with 1:46 to play as Staubach started by hitting Tony Hill with a 20-yard pass.

Americans win 26th Davis Cup

United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO — Stan Smith and Bob Lutz defeated Paolo Panatta and Paolo Bertolucci of Italy, 6-4, 12-10, 6-2, Saturday to win the United States its second straight and 26th Davis Cup championship.

The victory was the third without a loss for the Americans in the Cup final, coming on the heels of singles victories Friday night by McEnroe and Vitas Gerulaitis. McEnroe beat Panatta, 6-2, 6-3, while Gerulaitis won by default over Corrado Barazzutti, who had an ankle injury after dropping the first set.

Thus, Sunday's windup singles — Gerulaitis vs. Panatta and McEnroe vs. Antonio Zugarelli, who was named as sub for Barazzutti — were reduced to exhibitions.

Saturday's doubles match turned on the second set. With the Americans leading 11-10 and at deuce, Smith served and made the point. Panatta immediately protested the serve should have been called a netball. The protest was denied and the Italian angrily slammed his racket to the ground, then rapped a volley into the net to give the U.S. set point.

Earlier, Panatta had protested twice on longballs and was upheld by the referee, who ordered the Americans to serve again. When the Italian didn't get his way on the third protest, he lost his composure. The second set took one hour and 20 minutes and while the Americans looked whipped, Smith and Lutz retained their calm.

The third set became a mere formality as Smith and Lutz, winners of their 18th Davis Cup doubles match against one loss, methodically finished off Panatta and Bertolucci.

Games followed in the third set until the sixth when the Americans broke the Italians to go in front 4-2. Three volley errors by Panatta helped the U.S. widen its lead to 5-2, then the Americans closed it when neither Panatta nor Bertolucci could return a lob by Lutz.

FREE PREGNANCY TESTS

- Immediate Appointments
- Confidential Counseling
- Birth Control Information
- Termination of Pregnancy

WEST LOOP CLINIC
622-2170
2909 WEST LOOP SOUTH
HOUSTON, TEXAS 77027

So says the VA ... MUTT & JEFF
by AL SMITH

WARTIME VETERANS
65 OR OLDER
ARE ENTITLED TO PENSIONS IF THEY HAVE LIMITED INCOMES AND ASSETS!

YEH--
BUT
WHERE'S YOUR INCOME AND ASSETS?

Contact the nearest VA office (check your phone book) or write: Veterans Administration, 271A1, Wash., D.C. 20420

CLOTHES THAT NEVER DIE.

Dependability ...
Your special sense of well being in your Poplin windbreaker, corduroy button-down shirt, and your khaki slacks.
Windbreaker-45.00 Corduroy Shirts-25.00 Khaki Slacks-30.00

shellenberger's
Townshire — Up from Sears

Free gift wrapping: Open til 9 p.m.

Eagles beat Oilers Campbell takes title

United Press International
HOUSTON — Ron Jaworski ran for one touchdown and backup quarterback John Walton passed for another Sunday to lead the Philadelphia Eagles past the Houston Oilers 26-20 in a regular season ending contest that resembled an exhibition game.

Philadelphia, 11-5, became the winningest Eagle team since 1949, but did not have to face a rampaging Earl Campbell in the second half. Campbell was one of several key players rested because of the meaningless nature of the game.

Both teams had playoff berths secured before game time.

Before halftime, second year running back Campbell all but wrapped up his second NFL rushing title by rambling for 134 yards. He finished the regular season with 1,697 yards, 87 in front of runner up Walter Peyton of the Chicago Bears.

The Oilers, 11-5, had their slim AFC Central Division title hopes extinguished before the opening kickoff as the Pittsburgh Steelers overpowered Buffalo.

And despite scoring on Campbell's six-yard run, Mike Breeser's seven-yard pass and two consolation Fritsch field goals, Houston played as if it had nothing to lose.

Philadelphia built a nine-play, first quarter lead on Jaworski's 11-yard run and Tony Franklin's 25-yard field goal, one of two he kicked in the first half. Franklin missed a just first extra point try of the game.

Philadelphia boosted its lead in the second quarter with a 34-point run and countered after three shots on scored on Renfro's pass.

The Eagles won the game with a four-yard touchdown run from Walton to Scott Fitzkee. Fitzkee hit a 20-yard field goal in the third quarter to host the loser of Monday night's Denver-San Diego game in the 40th anniversary game Sunday.

Philadelphia hosts Chicago's wildcat game Sunday.

Jaworski completed 12 of 21 passes for 167 yards in leading the Eagles to the early lead, which they needed to compare to the Oilers.

The Eagles use Wally Henry's yard punt return to set up their touchdown and moments later added Franklin's first field goal.

Oilers' quarterback Dan Pastoris was intercepted twice in the second half.

Campbell, who led the NFL's 1,450 rushing yards last season, ran Sunday's game in second place on the NFL rushing list, three yards behind St. Louis' Otis Anderson. But Campbell had the best three-quarters of his career and left the game good with 16 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

Campbell's touchdown, his 11th rushing TD of the season, tied an NFL record for rushing touchdowns in a season held by former Green Bay Packers' fullback Jim Taylor.

WANTED THESE BOOKS!!!

Loupot is buying all your used books right now, but some books we really NEED so we'll buy them at a PREMIUM PRICE!! (over & above our reg. 20% in trade)

WE'RE PAYING A PREMIUM PRICE FOR THESE TEXTBOOKS:

ACCT 401 AG ENG 222 BIOL 219	BANA 217 CHEM ENG 424 ET 228	CE 348 CE 205 CE 311
MATH 308 CS 203 CS 201-202	ECON 203, 204 EE 305 EE 448	FIN 341 FIN 201 GEN 301
MGMT 383 GEOL 101-103 GEOL 104	ME 212-213 ME 344 ME 461	PHY 219 HUM 201 STAT 211

(Mention this ad when you bring in your books)

Trade your used books for the books you'll need this fall, beat the book rush and if you need a different book later we'll give you a full refund the first 2 weeks of the semester!!!!

LOUPOT'S BOOKSTORE

WE WANT ALL ENGINEERING AND BUSINESS TEXT BOOKS

Northgate - Across from the Post Office

MANOR EAST 3
MANOR EAST MALL 823-3300

STAR TREK
The Motion Picture
DOLBY STEREO

THE MOST INGENUOUS
THRILLER OF OUR TIME.
TIME AFTER TIME
DOLBY STEREO

CAMPUS
210 University Dr. 846-6512

THE ONION FIELD
DOLBY STEREO

WEST
7:15 11:05
MEATBALLS
8:55
Saturday Night Fever

EAST
7:15 10:20
Up From the Death
8:40
BARRACUDA

ATTENTION GRADUATING SENIORS

IF YOU HAVE ORDERED
A 1980 AGGIELAND, PLEASE
STOP BY THE STUDENT PUBLICATIONS OFFICE, ROOM 216
REED MCDONALD, AND PAY A
$2.50 MAILING FEE ALONG
WITH YOUR FORWARDING ADDRESS SO YOUR AGGIELAND
CAN BE MAILED TO YOU NEXT FALL WHEN THEY ARRIVE.

your marketplace the WANT ADS
Battalion Classifieds
Call 845-2611