Time banned in grocery stores

United Press International
TYLER — Shoppers frequenting outlets of one southern grocery chain won't find Time magazine among publications facing them at the checkout counter. The publication has been banned from the Brookshire Grocery Co. for six months because it named the Ayatollah Khomeini as its Man of the Year. Company president Bruce Brookshire said the ban involved 62 stores in Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas. "We were startled and dismayed that a magazine such as Time would come out with a cover picture of that man," Brookshire said. "Khomeini is an enemy to everything the United States stands for." "He's holding American's hostage and blackmailing our nation, and Time magazine did him an honor of placing his picture on the front cover. I'm sure their intention was not to honor him, but we feel it can be misinterpreted by many people." Brookshire said he wrote the editors of Time to advise them of his action but had received no response.
