Knock on Woods

Mustangs find Ag door closed

By TONY GALLUCCI
Sports Editor

DALLAS — Mustang Mania turned to Mustang Manic depression as SMU failed to make it five in a row over the Aggies in Dallas last night. A&M dazed the zone defense of coach Sonny Allen's kids and took a 63-56 win over the outmanned Mustangs. Rudy Woods, sophomore center, took another step towards individual honors while powering the Ags a step closer to team honors in hitting 20 points and grabbing 14 rebounds in the game.

Winless on the road against the Mustangs since the title run of 1975 — the Aggies clinched the SWC championship in Dallas that year, 100-77, behind Sonny Parker and Barry Davis — A&M cagers had more than pride to salvage. If the Aggies are to live up to preseason predictions of another crown this was an absolute must for the win column.

Importantly, with the game in the bag with ten minutes remaining, the young Ags did not make the fatal mistake of stopping to celebrate. he Dallas games of the last four years were all lost in the last minutes, but this year head coach Shelby Metcalf got forty minutes worth from his top eight.

Woods, constantly improving, played his best game of the year hitting 10 of 13 from the floor — eight for nine in the first half — and led the Ags in shooting percentage, point production and rebounding. Vernon Smith stopped his scoring slump at one game and added 18 points and five rebounds. As much a key to the game was the patient offensive maneuvers employed by the guards and wingmen. Run as outlined by the coaches prior to the game, Dave Goff, Dave Britton and Tyrone Ladson were able to open up SMU's zones and hit the big men — Woods and Rynn Wright — inside or go to Smith in the corners.

The game was not an easy one, however, With Richard Harris, Phil Hale and Johnnie James hitting 12 to 20 foot jumpers, SMU jumped into a quick lead. The lead increased to eight points at 11:32 before "The Wall" set up and started throwing bricks in the game plan of Allen. Woods began moving freely inside and collected six straight points during a short stretch as the first half waned. The last two of those points came on a stuff that signaled the beginning of the end.

With Smith adding buckets from 20 foot range the Ags moved into the first tie since 0-0 with 3:41 remaining in the first period when Woods dropped a layup to make it 29-29.

When Rudy popped a short jumper with 1:50 to play to boost [illegible] score to 33-31, A&M, the Ags [illegible] again trailed. Smith stuffed one [illegible] give the Ags the 35 point total [illegible] took to the dressing room at the [illegible] SMU was behind only by two.

Aided by an inappropri[illegible] goaltending call — referees [illegible] Brown, Bobby Dibler and La[illegible] Steubing nevertheless did an [illegible] standing job (if only we had more [illegible] and some careless turnovers cost [illegible] maroon the Mustangs manage[illegible] stay fairly close for another five m[illegible] utes. But the Ponies went cold [illegible] shooting touch and the Ags built [illegible] eight point lead with 13:35 to [illegible] SMU got off three quick buckets [illegible] narrow the margin to two with 1[illegible] remaining, when a television ti[illegible] out was called.

The Ags quickly came in [illegible] raised the lead to its highest of [illegible] night at ten, 57-47, on the Britto[illegible] Woods alley-oop stuff which has [illegible] missed clicking on so many other [illegible] casions this year. Metcalf then [illegible] serted three ballhandlers, Goff, La[illegible] son and Britton to open the defe[illegible] up but three straight Aggie to[illegible] overs allowed SMU to narrow [illegible] gap again to 57-52.

A&M held steady, though, [illegible] the Mustangs panicked. In get[illegible] the opportunities to score the Fro[illegible] were carelessly wasting time. [illegible] Allen, SMU's second leading sco[illegible] going into the game, hit zero of [illegible] from the field. He was so frayed [illegible] the end of the game that, with [illegible] onds remaining, he drove for [illegible] layup and in easy scoring range [illegible] cided instead to feed to fresh[illegible] Dave Piehler, who was then fr[illegible] to jack it up from the corner. Pie[illegible] missed and so did the Mustangs.

the Aggies are now 12-5 ove[illegible] and 4-0 in SWC play including [illegible] tough road wins — as if any w[illegible] easy. Metcalf's squad will next b[illegible] Rice in Houston on Saturday be[illegible] returning to host Arkansas the [illegible] lowing Tuesday.

No WBL million-dollar sal[illegible]

United Press International

HOUSTON — A widely publicized $1 million sale of the Womens Basketball League defending champion Houston Angels to a group of investors was labeled a "phony" Tuesday by a team official.

"I felt it was time that this was exposed," Angels public relations director Dick McDowell said. "This has been going on for some time. It was a phony from the start."

McDowell said businessman Richard Klinger, who said he was president of Sports Resources Inc., "hurt the operation very badly" by failing to back up his agreement with cash.

Since the deal fell through, Angels' founder Hugh Sweeney stepped in and paid some of the debts, McDowell said. Sweeney had announced the unprecedented $1 million sale two months ago after having bought the franchise for $50,000 a year ago.

"The most they (Sports Resour[illegible] ever had in the bank was $5,0[illegible] McDowell said.

The situation was so bad for [illegible] team recently that they could [illegible] practice for two weeks until an [illegible] paid gym rental fee was settled.

Although the Angels, 8-6 this [illegible] son, only draw a handful of s[illegible] tators, McDowell predicted t[illegible] would survive.

"It will not fold. It is a wait-a[illegible] see things," he said.

Vermeil: coach of yea[illegible]

United Press International

ST. LOUIS — Dick Vermeil, [illegible] led the Philadelphia Eagles into t[illegible] playoffs for the second straight ye[illegible] has been selected the NFL coach [illegible] the year by The Sporting News.

The weekly publication Mon[illegible] also named John Sanders, gene[illegible] manager of the San Diego Charge[illegible] NFL executive of the year.

Vermeil received 12 of 27 votes [illegible] The Sporting News poll of NF[illegible] coaches to finish ahead of Washi[illegible] ton's Jack Pardee, who received f[illegible] votes.
