

Two out of three games upsets

Horned Frogs, Ponies, Bears take SWC wins

TCU 71, UH 69

SMU 85, Rice 83

FORT WORTH — With the help of Deckert Johnson, a rejuvenated TCU held off a late Houston rally Tuesday night to win its second Southwest Conference game in a row, defeating the Cougars 71-69.

TCU which led for most of the game, jumped out to a seven-point advantage with less than five minutes to go in the second half. But the Cougars whittled the lead down to one point with 10:18 left on a Ken Williams jumper from the wing. Williams had game-high honors with 22 points.

Robert Williams then stole the ball and drove the length of the court for a layup to give Houston the lead — its first since the 13-minute mark of the first half.

Johnson an All-America junior college player, finished the game with 18 points, hitting eight of 14 from the field. John Mansbury came off the bench to hit 15 for TCU and Eric Summers had 10.

It was the first time TCU, now 7-9 on the year and 2-5 in SWC play, had won back-to-back conference games since the 1975-1976 season. That year the Frogs beat Rice 103-87 in Fort Worth and then tripped Texas 73-70 at Austin.

Houston is 2-4 in the league.

HOUSTON — A 15-foot jump shot by Brad Branson with six seconds to go, combined with a free throw by Billy Allen with one second left, climaxed a frantic final minute Saturday night and gave Southern Methodist an 85-83 victory over Rice.

SMU trailed by as many as 13 points in the first half and took the lead for the first time in the game with 2:05 to go at 80-79.

SMU owned an 82-81 lead when Branson tried to bring the ball in bounds for the Mustangs. But he could not get the ball in within the required five seconds and Rice took over with 30 seconds to play.

Glen Rieke took advantage of the opportunity to hit a shot that put Rice ahead at 83-82 with 10 seconds remaining.

That set up Branson's shot that put the Mustangs back in front. After Rice's Tony DeCello was called for a charging foul with one second to play Allen chipped in a final free throw.

The win broke a three-game losing streak for SMU and gave the Mustangs a 2-5 Southwest Conference record. SMU is 10-7 for the season. Rice dropped to 1-5 for the conference campaign and to 3-11 overall.

Allen playing with four fouls for much of the second half led the Musttangs with 28 points while Branson scored 21. Rickey Pierce paced the Owls with 24 and DeCello added 20.

Baylor 62, UT 48

WACO — Terry Teagle, Pat Nunley and Jay Shakir, combined for eight straight points to snuff out a Texas comeback in the second half Tuesday night and pace the Baylor Bears to a surprise 62-48 win over the Longhorns.

Teagle led all scorers with 18 points in an 8-for-12 performance from the field.

The Bears led during most of the first half and maintained a 30-24 advantage after the opening period. That lead quickly went to 10 in the second half before Texas began a comeback.

Texas tied the game at 36-36 and went in front by two on a basket by Ron Baxter. But Baylor then reeled off eight straight points — two by Nunley, two by Shakir and fourth Teagle — to regain a lead it never lost.

The Longhorns dropped to 5-10 Southwest Conference play and 10-6 for the year while Baylor won its second league game against four losses and is 7-9 for the season.

Nunley and Shakir each scored for the Bears while Baxter paced cold-shooting Longhorns with 19 points. Texas shot only 34 percent from the field.

Netters play in singles title tournament

Two Aggies, junior Trey Schutz and senior Alberto Jimenez, are among 64 collegians playing in the NCAA tennis singles Championship in Houston.

The prestigious tournament is an invitational event played on indoor courts. Matches started Tuesday.

A&M tennis coach David Kent said it was an honor to have two players in the strong field.

"Jimenez won the New Iberia, La., tournament last September and then Schutz won the Cotton Bowl tournament in Dallas in December. Both had a great fall season," said Kent.

Kent was especially pleased with Schutz's progress. The Finance major from Galveston O'Connell has advanced from the number three spot on last year's Aggie tennis team to number one on this year's.

"Trey has improved tremendously," Kent said. "He's playing beautifully right now. He progressed further than anyone else during the fall."

Jimenez, an Agricultural Economics major from Bogota, Colombia, is currently ranked "number two or three (on the A&M team), it varies by the week," said Kent. Reid Freeman, a junior from Dallas who played in the NCAA tournament a year ago, competes with him for the number two slot.

Jimenez is ranked second in the men's division in Colombia. A transfer student, he won the men's junior college doubles championship in 1977.

The tournament in Houston consists of a main draw of 16 contestants. Both Jimenez and Schutz will have to play in a qualifying round to reach the main draw.

"They may have to play three or four matches to reach the main draw," Kent said.

Kent said the tournament will give the two some tough competition for the upcoming SWC season.

Kent called the SWC the toughest conference in the country. "Last year we barely missed getting into the top 20," he said. "This year we should break into it, but it will be harder to improve our position in the conference."

The team finished with an 11-11 record last year, which included a 3-5 conference record.

The home season for the netters begins at against Hardin-Simmons University on Feb. 2.

Another UNM basketballer is out for season

United Press International ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Another starter for the scandal-ridden University of New Mexico basketball team has been taken off the roster because of academic problems.

UNM officials Monday announced that starting forward Everette Jefferson had become ineligible and would be unable to continue playing through the rest of the season.

UNM officials said the 6-5 senior had been suspended from the UNM College of Arts and Sciences for "academic reasons." Under school policy, athletes must be in a degree-granting college in order to play for UNM.

The ineligibility leaves only two members from the original starting team who have played continuously through the season. They are 6-7 center Jim Williams and 6-3 forward Kenny Page.
