Carter leads Kennedy in L.A., Chicago polls

United Press International
A poll of New Hampshire voters for a Los Angeles newspaper shows President Carter far ahead of Sen. Edward Kennedy. And a poll in the Chicago area indicates Carter would beat any GOP challenger, but Kennedy would have a tougher time.

The Los Angeles Times survey of New Hampshire Democrats showed Carter leading Kennedy, 51 percent to 27 percent, with California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. getting 7 percent. Including independents, Carter had 49 percent and Kennedy 24 percent.

In the GOP race, the survey of 1,195 registered voters last week showed Reagan with 42 percent, Bush with 38 percent, and Tennessee Sen. Howard Baker with 6 percent. With independents counted, Bush had 39 percent to Reagan's 35 percent.

A poll in Chicago for the Sun-Times and WMAQ-TV showed Carter ahead of Republicans George Bush, Ronald Reagan and John Connally by at least a 2-1 margin. But, Kennedy was shown ahead of only Connally, indicated as the weakest GOP candidate in Illinois.

The New Hampshire primary is Feb. 26 and the Illinois primary is March 18.

The Los Angeles survey indicated Kennedy was trailing badly even within Democratic voter groups that normally would be expected to reject Kennedy.

In the Bush-Reagan race, the Los Angeles poll shows the vote split according to age, education, income, philosophy and ex. It also indicates the outcome could hinge on how many independents turn out.

Carter, Brown accused of an 'unholy alliance'

United Press International
Sen. Edward Kennedy said President Carter and Gov. Edmund Brown have joined in an "unholy alliance" to hurt him in the Maine caucuses.

Both the New York Times and the Boston Globe have published accounts in recent days of an exchange of names of undecided Democrat voters, and Kennedy told reporters Tuesday his own workers have found evidence the two rival campaigns "are working together in some way to try to slow my candidacy."

He later added, "It is a rather unholy alliance. But these things occasionally happen in politics."

A severe Kennedy loss in Maine, following his defeat by a nearly 2-to-1 margin last month in the Iowa caucuses could do more than slow him down. He has acknowledged the need to do well in Maine and in the Feb. 26 New Hampshire primary, if for no other reason than to re-energize the faltering flow of campaign contributions.

On the Republican side, Ronald Reagan celebrated his 69th birthday Wednesday with a campaign swing through South Carolina. He heard the song "Happy Birthday" everywhere he went in New Hampshire Tuesday and said, "Another birthday sure beats the alternative."

Reagan, widely criticized for not participating in a GOP candidate debate before the Iowa caucuses, has accepted the League of Women Voters' invitation to join his six rivals in a similar forum in New Hampshire Feb. 20.

Former U.N. Ambassador George Bush acquired the endorsements Tuesday of former Attorney General Elliot Richardson and his former deputy, William Ruckelshaus.

Dole to revive campaign

United Press International
MANCHESTER, N.H. — Republican presidential hopeful Robert Dole has embarked on a massive advertising campaign in New Hampshire to reverse a trend that has seen him tumble to the bottom of the political polls.

At a news conference Tuesday, Arthur Kurlanski, president of Weston Advertising, said Dole will be running 30-40 radio ads on 17 different New Hampshire and Boston radio stations this week.

The Kansas senator will also be taking out full-page ads in 12 newspapers as well as running campaign spots on six television stations in Massachusetts, Maine and New Hampshire.

"That's a great deal more (advertising) than any of the other candidates are doing," said Kurlanski, whose Manchester firm was recently hired to help Dole's sagging campaign in New Hampshire.

Back in September, a Boston Globe poll showed Dole running neck and neck with former CIA Director George Bush with about 8 percent of the vote. Just ahead of them was Tennessee Sen. Howard Baker.

At that time, former California Gov. Ronald Reagan was beating all his challengers combined.

A Globe poll released Sunday showed Bush had forged a narrow lead over Reagan and Baker had slipped to third. Dole, meanwhile, had fallen to the bottom of the heap behind Texas Gov. John Connally and Illinois Reps. Philip Crane and John Anderson.

Dole registered less than 1 percent of the vote in the latest poll.

Reed Tubular is looking for an M.E.

We are looking for an ME to join us this June.

If you turn out to be that person, you will find that you are an important individual on our engineering team. Your work will be noted. You will be called on right from the beginning to apply your skills and knowledge. Particularly in metallurgy, strength of materials, and mechanical design.

We make tool joints. They look simple. They aren't. They are very complex and require sophisticated engineering. They're part of the most critical major component of a drilling rig, the drill string. They must hold up in these strings extending into the earth as much as 5 or 6 miles. They must withstand rough treatment on land and offshore.

You will be asked to visit rig sites from time to time for first-hand observation of actual conditions of use.

Being part of the Baker International family, we offer you complete benefits, promotional opportunities, additional training and schooling, and all the other advantages of a big corporation. But the main thing we offer you is a chance to try your hand doing what you have been studying for all these years.

We're allowing a full hour for campus interview instead of the usual brief half hour. Will you spend one of your hours with us?

WE WILL BE AT A&M ON FEB 11. SIGN UP NOW.
