DYER DEAL LOOT LIST!

The Dyer Dealers have a complete home stereo system that will perk up your ears and hardly disturb your wallet! The components are a Nikko 315 receiver matched with a pair of Fisher three-way speakers, and an Akai belt-drive turntable complete. This name-brand system normally sells for $529.80.

ROB US AT $299

The archenemy of boredom is music; and the Akai GX-255 reel-to-reel recorder with full automatic reverse can insure that your activities are never interrupted by silence. Full logic solenoid controls, three GX heads, and mic/line mixing are but a few outstanding features; and a few is all Dyer got in this caper. Hurry!

GET WELL AT $529

A stereo distributor missed a payment and Dyer bought all his O'Sullivan inventory at bankruptcy prices! Now get your stereo gear together in a new stereo rack with smoked-glass door, roll-about casters, adjustable shelves, and ample record storage space. Regularly $159.95!

GET IT TOGETHER FOR $99

While keeping a stereo supplier at bay with one hand, one Dyer Dealer loaded a van with fully-automatic Toshiba turntables with the other hand. These turntables are heavy and regularly sell for $149.95. This proves just how serious the Dyer gang is about this sale. It also proves anyone can be a stereo supplier.

RECORD BUY $99

Jerry Dyer believes the people should have more power; so for the duration of this sale he's offering everyone a 60-watt Clarion power booster with graphic equalizer for their car. Worth almost $200, this hard-drivin' booster can be yours for a price that makes competitors want to cry!

JAIL BAIT $139

The Sanyo folks will croak when they read this! Get a pair of Sanyo SP-795 two-way box speakers for your van, jeep, blazer, stagecoach, or any vehicle that can't take flush-mount speakers. Regularly $99 you get super sound and Dyer gets practically nothing!

Embarrassed Supplier Hit for Fourth Straight Year

When asked about the Dyer Dealers latest stereo steal, stoic Stanley Studley of Stupendous Stereo Storehouse stated, "They really shook my booray this time! The first two years they got me in January. So I got ready for 'em last January and they waited until May. This year I'm figuring May again and look what they did. Heck, my guard dog's still a puppy!" Looking through his near-empty warehouse, Stanley said the Dyer bunch "only took the good stuff." "They didn't even touch the stereo I sell other dealers."

Deluxe Cassette Recorder

Was $549.95 and worth every penny of it! Power to spare plus everything but bucket seats, the SA-775 is an exceptional value during this Sale. Just 10% down puts one in layaway!
