Handball Nationals

In the recent National Intercollegiate Handball Tournament held in Irvine, California, February 29 - March 2, Texas A&M sent four players. Sue Oakleaf won the National Women's Open Singles Championship, while Glorian Motal took 3rd place and Jill MacAluso won the Consolation bracket. Sue has been the Texas State Women's Singles Champion the past two years while Glorian and Jill were both semi-finalists this year. Our fourth player, John Welch, made it to the Quarter-Finals in the National Tournament in a very tough "C" division. John is the Southwest Intercollegiate "C" division singles champion for 1980. The results of the national tournament and other recent Texas Tournaments reflect the enthusiasm and talent in handball that is present at Texas A&M. We plan to have over forty players participating in the upcoming Southwest Divisional Handball Tournament in Austin, March 21-23. We are also looking forward to the 3rd Annual Spring TAMU Handball Club Tournament that will take place at DeWitt House April 11, 12, & 13. Anyone interested in these events or in the TAMU Handball Club should contact Larry (845-6841) or Richard (845-3103).

CAUGHT IN THE ACTION this week is Mr. Walter M. Penberthy, who will throw out the first pitch at the Penberthy Celebration of Sports. The Penberthy Intramural Complex is named for "Mr. Penny", who came to A&M in 1926 to teach physical education and serve as Intramural Director.

At A&M, "Mr. Penny" reorganized the intramural program so every student had a chance to participate. He also held various positions within the University, including Head of Health and Physical Education Department, Chairman of the MSC Council, and Chairman of the Athletic Council. In 1947, Mr. Penberthy became Dean of Men. He returned to full-time teaching in 1959 and taught volleyball for required P.E. classes.

As a professor, "Mr. Penny" learned the names of all his students and checked them in by a "hello" each day instead of calling roll. During his tenure, he also wrote a column for The Battalion entitled "Penny's Serenade", which gave advice and philosophies of the good life. Mr. Penberthy retired in 1966.

Today "Mr. Penny" visits the campus often during his daily three-mile walks. He also enjoys hunting and fishing and owns a ranch in Clifton. He and his wife have traveled a bit and consider the Orient their favorite place. They also visit their three children and eight grandchildren at least once a year and visit friends all over the United States.

Mr. Penberthy enjoys being a spectator at Intramural games and finds "the wholesome fun" the greatest thing about the intramural program. In his opinion, the best job on campus is the directorship of Intramurals because of its student contact. According to his wife, "Mr. Penny is interested in young people and will never grow old."
