some freshmen filling some of those gaps. The Aggies appeared to have won the Southwest Conference re-cruiting war this year, signing 11 of the top 30 high school players in with the team working out five times

Texas We're not blessed with great depth for spring training and our in-coming freshmen next fall must supply that needed depth," Wilson

There is adequate depth at a few positions though. Some of the more competitive battles for starting assignments will be in the offensive backfield. Mike Mosley, a three-year letterman who has started at quarterback for the past two years, will be challenged by David Beal, also a three-year letterman, and sophomores Gary Kubiak and Mark McQueen.
