PAULA SORRELS
Classification: Junior
Major: Business
Age: 22
Hometown: Magnolia
Qualifications: 1979-80 OCA secretary.

Platform: Sorrels would like to initiate programs that will familiarize off-campus students, especially freshmen, with the University. She would like to do something about the high price of apartments and acquaint students with possible options.

Platform: Way plans to go through the proper channels to obtain facilities the dorms are lacking such as ice and change machines, vending machines and recreational equipment for intramurals. He would like to place more emphasis on public relations and intends to work closely with RHA's 14 committees to develop better communication between them.

Hometown: San Diego, Tx.
Qualifications: active in Class of '82 Council, MSC Political Forum officer.

Platform: Correa would like to coordinate class activities around class members' time schedules so they will be able to participate. He wants class members to know what they want is what the class council wants.

Qualifications: 1979-80 co-chairman of Halloween dance, active in class council.

Platform: O'Brien would like to better the communication between the class council members and let them know what their duties are. By doing this, she said the council could increase its effectiveness and have more participation.

ROY BRANTLEY

Major: Marketing
Age: 21
Hometown: Belton

Qualifications: three-year class council member, 1977-78 state officer in Future Farmers of America, leadership training through FFA, public relations sergeant on Corps Staff.

Platform: Brantley would like to increase participation in the class council by having more orderly meetings at a consistent time and place. He said he would like to get in touch with newspapers and radio stations to publicize the dedication of the class gift next year. Brantley is also considering having short programs during the class meetings to encourage attendance.

Residence Hall Association President:

SHERRIE BALCAR

Classification: Junior
Major: Accounting
Age: 20
Hometown: Schulenberg

Qualifications: dormitory representative for three years, 1978-79 RHA Outstanding Delegate, president of Mosher Hall dorm council, current Casino co-chairman.

Platform: Balcar would like to work toward a cross-dining program for students on a periodic basis. She hopes to extend food services to alleviate the current and predicted overcrowding in the dining halls by getting vending machines and microwaves in the lounges. To increase unity among the dorms, she would like to coordinate money-raising activities between them.

Class of '83 President

MIKE LAWSHE
Major: Industrial Engineering
Age: 18
Hometown: Dallas
Qualifications: 1979-80 class of '83 vice president.

Platform: Lawshe would like to have get-togethers for the class after football games and have more informal dances throughout the year. He said he would like to sell T-shirts or posters to raise money for the class.

MARIE KELLY

Major: Accounting
Age: 18
Hometown: Dallas
Qualifications: active in class council and Student Y.

Platform: Kelly would like to increase participation in the class council by possibly sending out flyers to inform class members of the meetings. She wants to avidly work on money-raising projects to go toward the class gift.

Class of '82 President

BUBBA CORREA
Major: Political Science
Age: 20

Qualifications: 1979-80 RHA vice president, 1978-79 hall representative, Casino co-chairman.
