Rapp opens spring drills

The Texas A&M University men's track team competes in the Baylor Invitational today and Saturday in Waco.

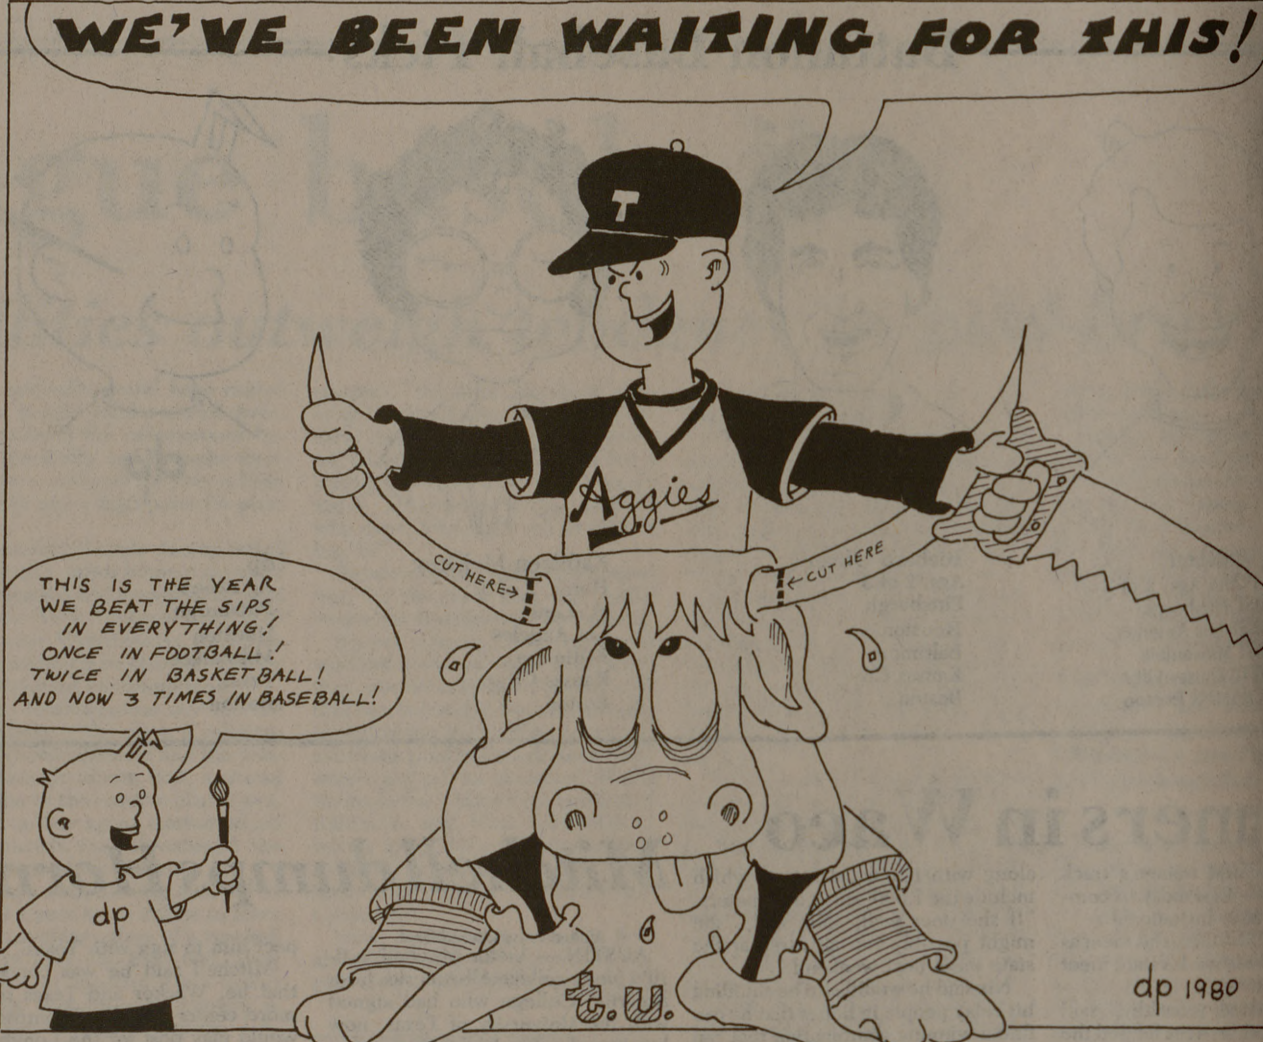

Assistant coach Ted Nelson said Thursday the only athlete who won't be able to compete in the meet will be javelin thrower Mike Newsom, who has a sore arm.

Texas A&M faces some of the top track schools in the region — the University of Texas, Baylor, Lamar and the University of Texas-Arlington.

"Of course, University of Texas is real strong in the field events," Nelson said. Texas has been the Aggies' strongest opponent this spring and has the top marks in the Southwest Conference this season in four field events — the high jump and the triple jump, the discus and the javelin.

However Texas A&M has pole vaulter Randy Hall, who has cleared 18 feet twice this year; Curtis Dickey, the year's fastest man in the 100-meter dash; and one of the fastest 400-meter relay teams in the nation — Steve Willis, Leslie Kerr, Vernon Pittman and Dickey.

Three of Texas A&M's athletes — long jumpers Johnny Hector and James Redus, and high jumper Don Jones — will play in the Maroon and White spring football game Saturday night in Kyle Field.

Aggies, Longhorns vie for conference baseball lead

BASEBALL

The Texas A&M baseball team travels to Austin this weekend for what may be the series that determines the Southwest Conference championship. The Ags are a game behind the Longhorns in the league standings and must win all three games to take over first place.

Although both teams are assured of a slot in the post-season SWC tournament, the series will probably be a typical Aggie-Longhorn battle, and it is especially important to Texas

A&M coach Tom Chandler, who in 22 years at the Aggie helm has finished second to the Longhorns eight times.

The Longhorns, 40-6 on the season, are currently ranked No. 3 in the nation and the lead the conference with a 15-3 record. The Aggies, 31-7, are ranked ninth and are second in the league with a 13-4 record.

The Aggies are coming off a four-game sweep over Oklahoma City University earlier this week. The Aggie bats went wild in that series, with the Ags scoring 28 runs in the double-headers held Monday and Tuesday nights. The Aggie pitching wasn't bad either. Six Texas A&M pitchers allowed only seven runs in those four games.

The young Aggies will probably go with three freshmen on the mound. David Flores will start the nine-inning Friday night opener and Rick Luecken and Robert Slavens will man the pitching duties in the Saturday double-header.

TENNIS

The Texas A&M tennis team gets a chance to avenge an earlier loss when it plays host to Pan American University today at the varsity courts.

The Ags suffered one of their eight season losses when Pan American beat them 5-4 in the Pan American tennis tournament in February.

The Aggies are coming off a major upset against the University of Houston last Saturday. The Cougars, ranked No. 13 in the country, were knocked off by the Ags, who are No. 20, 5-2, in a match shortened due to darkness.

On Saturday, the Aggies will host Lamar University.

Coach David Kent and his "fearless freshmen" who have been winning matches for him lately, are confidant of victory this time.

Brian Joelson, Tom Judson and Kowal make up that core.

Sturday, the three Aggie winners over Cougars meet to lead the Aggie victory.

Matches start at 1:30 p.m. T. Aggie over the Aggie.

The women's team, coached by Hollis Stacy, travels to Ohio State weekend for the TAJAW championship. The women's team is led by Kathleen Sissom, Marilyn and Liliana Fernandez.

SOFTBALL

The women's softball team moved up a notch in this week's national rankings, will conclude home schedule this Saturday as they host a round robin tournament at Bee Creek.

The Aggies, ranked No. 10 in the nation, moved up from the 11th position after winning 11 games during the past three weeks. They now have a season record of 29-7.

On Saturday, coach Bill Way's team will take on Baylor at 6 p.m., Stephen F. Austin at 8 p.m. and Louisiana State at 10 p.m.
