Aggies plan parents' visit

By TERRY DURAN
Campus Reporter

Students who use their cars this weekend may find there is nowhere to park on campus, as parents from throughout the state and nation descend on Texas A&M University for Parents' Weekend 1980.

The first event scheduled is the MSC Town Hall presentation of country singer Ronnie Milsap at 7 tonight in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

A Town Hall spokesman said the $3.25 general admission tickets will probably be on sale up to show time.

Casino, sponsored by the Residence Hall Association, is the next event on today's agenda, starting at 8 p.m. and running until 12:30.

The Las Vegas-style gambling event will be held on the second floor of the Memorial Student Center.

Casino night gamblers will receive play money as they enter, which they will then wager on such games as blackjack, craps and the roulette wheel. There will also be a can-can girls' chorus line and an auction at the end of the evening for players to buy prizes with play money they have won. Admission is $2.50 before opening and $3 at the door.

Also tonight, the Aggie Players will present "Guys and Dolls" at 8 p.m. in Rudder Theater and Aggie Cinema will show "Escape from Alcatraz" at 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. in Rudder Auditorium.

Saturday will begin with Federation of A&M Mothers' Clubs activities, followed by an exhibition on the main drill field by the Texas A&M Skydivers Club at 1 p.m.

Next year's football team will play at 2 p.m. in Kyle Field as the annual Maroon and White game pits the Maroon team, composed of next year's first string offense and defense, against a White squad drawn from the rest of the team.

Admission to the game will be free to Aggies with their ID's, $3 for adults and $1 for high school age and younger.

Saturday at 8 p.m., the Singing

Cadets will perform in Rudder Auditorium. Tickets are $2.50 MSC Box Office and $3 at the door. Saturday at midnight, Aggie-ma will show the movie "FM" in Grove.

Sunday morning activities begin on the Corps Quad as the er-pinning ceremonies take place at 7:30. At the ceremony, each has a carnation pinned on his commanding officer's mother if the cadet's mother is living if she is dead.

Awards within the outfit be handed out at this time, medals for drilling and outdoor freshmen and sophomores.

At 9 a.m. Sunday, there are Parents' Day program in Rudder Auditorium, where outstanding academic students will be recognized. Corps-wide awards will be out.

Also, Aggie Parents of the selected from nominations within the student body, announced at this time. The of the Year are selected by Parents' Day Committee.

After a reception and coffee parents in Rudder Exhibit there will be an 11 a.m. devotion. The All Faiths Chapel, followed program on Aggie traditions in Rudder Theater.

The Texas A&M Women's Team will perform on the field at 12:15, followed by anation by the Ross Volunteer Co. at 1 p.m.

The Corps of Cadets announce awards for the year standing out in Kyle Field p.m. The Corps will then review, followed immediately performance by the Fish Drill.

Parsons' Mounted Cavalry perform on the Duncan field at 3:30, after which the Volunteer Company will be own awards ceremony in the field.

The Texas Aggie Band will perform in Rudder Theater at 4:30 Sunday.

Carter gains delegates

United Press International
President Carter gained a bit more ground today on rival Edward Kennedy in Idaho's Democratic caucuses, and Republican front-runner Ronald Reagan Thursday added a dozen North Dakota delegates to his steadily growing tally.

Carter, however, fell just short of winning a majority of Idaho's 17 Democratic National Convention delegates, picking up eight to Kennedy's five. Four delegates will be uncommitted, party officials said.

With 34 of Idaho's 35 legislative district caucuses reporting early today, Carter won 49 percent, or 181, of the 380 delegates being cast at the state convention. Kennedy, 30 percent, or 109 state delegates, and 83 delegates, or 21 percent, were undecided.

Idaho Democratic Chairman Wayne Fuller said some came in later than expected, the mountainous Challis area Democrats had to take to country skis to reach a party caucus.

Idaho's National Democratic delegates will be named at the convention June 12-14 in Phoenix, where Republicans choose delegates on the basis of results in the state's May 27 primary.

The Idaho and North Dakota results gave President Carter 942 delegates. Kennedy had 30.5 were uncommitted, the nomination, a candidate with 1,666 delegates.

Reagan now has 513 delegates. Bush has 79. John Anderson, toward a race as an independent.

Another 70 delegates are committed and four are pledged to nois Rep. Philip Crane, who was voted out of the race. To nomination, a candidate with 998 delegates.

Later, in Texas, Reagan around a saying of the Roosevelt's in scoring Carter's ling of the Iran crisis, saying trouble with this administration that it walks sticky and car soft.

United Press International
INDIANAPOLIS — Caucus leaders in the Methodist Church on Thursday that one of their would be demoted in restructuring of church staff.

The complaint contrasted call for unity by Bishop Caders, of the Birmingham, Ala. made Wednesday on the 1980 General Conference denomination's 1,000 memberative body.

The Rev. Jose R. Velazquez, president of the Association representing the Cause of the Americans — MARCHA — planned the board of discipline shown a "lack of sensitivity" restructuring of its staff which mean the Rev. Roberto Egan Nashville, Tenn., who is the ranking hispanic staff member denomination, would not be tor of a new department.

Velazquez said MARCHA continue negotiating with the If necessary, the caucus will denomination's Washington Commission on Religion and for investigation of the board's pliance with affirmative guidelines, he said.
