Weekend
Baseball highlights successes

By RICHARD OLIVER
Sports Editor
The weekend in review:
Women's Softball — Texas A&M University knocked off the University of Texas-Arlington Saturday afternoon, 2-1 and 3-1 behind the, as-usual, excellent pitching of aces Lori Stoll and Shan McDonald.
The nationally third-ranked Aggies ended their season with a 19-game winning streak and a 37-7 record.
Stoll, 18-2, pitched a six-hitter in the first game, but it took a run in the bottom of the seventh to win it.
McDonald, 16-5, shut down UT-A on four hits in the second game.
The Aggies play Wednesday night at 7 p.m. in the opening of the TAIWA Softball Championships, to be held at Bee Creek Park in College Station through Friday.

Women's Tennis — The women's tennis team lost a disappointing match to TCU, 8-1, Friday evening at the varsity courts here. Elise Richardson provided the only victory for the Aggies, defeating Barbara Von Demleux.
In the No. 1-seed match, Aggie Maylyn Hooton lost to TCU's Lori Nelson, 6-3, 6-4. In the No. 1 seed doubles, Hooton and Terri Neutze were defeated by Angela Bartz and Janie Bowen, 6-1, 6-4.
In spite of this weekend's loss, the women's team has qualified for the state championships, to be held Wednesday in Odessa.
Annual Elephant Bowl — Saturday the Army-Navy cadets of Texas A&M competed against the Air Force cadets and the Fightin' Texas Aggie Band. When the smoke cleared, the Navy team had come out on top, 27-19.
The game was held to benefit the United Way and the American Heart Association, and the money will be distributed to these organizations next week, with a small amount of money held back to help the Elephant Bowl continue next year.

The Elephant Bowl wishes to be independent from the University, and to perpetuate itself through a small percentage of the input from the game itself.
Approximately 750 vocal people watched the nip-and-tuck battle, and over $1100 was collected.
The Wings and Sabers Society, which sponsored the game, was a little disappointed in the low turnout.
Ray Johnson, president of the club, said he hopes the game will get a better response next year.
Baseball — The Aggies swept the Rice Owls Saturday and Sunday, scoring 28 points in a three-game series. Aggie hurlers David Flores (3-2), Rick Luecken (9-3), and Robert Slavens (11-0), finished up the regular season with 23 of the Aggies 36 victories, and the Aggies have clinched at least second place in the final SWC standings.
Track — The men's track team overwhelmed the rest of the field at this weekend's Domino-Sunkist Track Classic in Florida, with Aggie stalwart Tim Scott named the outstanding performer. Scott won the discus and the shot-put. Although no team scores were tallied, Texas A&M won six events, more than any other team competing.

Judson, Kowal win, lead 6th place Aggies

The Texas A&M University men's tennis team, spurred on by the fine play of Tom Judson and Ron Kowal, finished sixth place this weekend in the Southwest Conference tennis championships held at the H.E.B. Tennis Center in Corpus Christi.
Judson and Kowal, who finished 13-1 on the season, edged by Jose Lambert and Scott Diehl of Arkansas 4-6, 7-5, 7-6, to win the number three bracket championship.
Freshman sensation Brian Joelson, an instrumental factor behind Texas A&M's success this year, lost to Chris Doane of TCU in the number five bracket singles finals, 7-5, 6-2. Joelson finished the season with a 22-6 singles record.

The final standings were: Arkansas 76, Houston 53, SMU 54, TCU 47, Texas A&M 46, Rice 45, Texas Tech 16 and Baylor 5.
Aggie coach David Kent, although disappointed the Aggies finished only one match behind Texas, he was pleased with his team's performance over the year.
"We were really proud about finish," he said. "It was the first we've won in the SWC (Judson and Kowal's championship victory especially from 'little' freshmen."

Jenkins fails to win 100th

A throwing error by shortstop Norman paved the way for Cleveland Indians to score three earned runs in the fourth inning, and triggered a 7-4 victory over the Texas Rangers in a game played in steady rain.
After spotting the Rangers a lead in the first inning, the Indians chased starter and loser Ferguson Jenkins, 1-2, in the fourth.
Johnson also scored when center fielder Mickey Rivers bobbled ball and Tom Verzyer's two-out le scored the final run.

TURN YOUR SUMMER
BREAK INTO SUMMER
BUCK$$$$

We know how important summer employment is to your budget... So now is a good time to think about working for Kelly Services. We need people with clerical, marketing and light industrial skills.

If you can offer any of these skills, we can offer you top pay, convenient working locations, and the flexibility to work as much or as little as you want.

Kelly has over 20 locations in the state of Texas. Six of which are in and around Houston. And, for your information, we're coming to Texas A&M M.S.C. on April 29th and 30th from 9:30 - 3:30.

Come and see us... We're not just for secretaries anymore.
