TPEA reaches agreement

United Press International
AUSTIN — The executive director of the Texas Public Employees Association Tuesday announced the organization has signed agreements with two state agencies to assist public employees with personal problems.

Gary Hughes said TPEA had contracted with the Texas Department of Community Affairs and the Texas Commission of Alcoholism to provide employees with professional and confidential assistance for problems involving alcoholism, drug abuse, financial problems, legal problems and emotional problems. Presently, TPEA offers the program only in Travis County. Hughes said 467 public employees or their family members had utilized the counseling services in the past two years.

He also said the program, which will cost $110,000 over two years, will help job performance and make the state bureaucracy more efficient.

No show costs singer Lewis

United Press International
OKLAHOMA CITY — Singer Jerry Lee Lewis has signed an agreement promising a $400,000 payment for damages claimed by an Oklahoma City promoter.

George Cunningham sued Lewis for $453,645, alleging the performer failed to show up for a January 1978 appearance.

Lewis, known for his rock 'n' roll classics and more recently his country-western songs, was arrested about 1 a.m. Monday on a bench warrant issued by a district judge.

Cunningham, former operator of the defunct Whiskey River club, claimed in the suit that Lewis failed to show up for booked performances Jan. 20 and 21, 1978.

Cunningham claims that financial losses incurred because Lewis did not appear forced him to close the club.

The promoter was awarded $200,000 for loss of good will, $140,000 for club remodeling expenses, $38,500 for defaulting on his lease, $15,000 for ticket sales, $55,000 for loss of income and $5,145 for advertising.

District Judge Stewart Hunter Monday ordered Lewis to settle the debt or appear at an Aug. 11 hearing.

During the Monday hearing, Lewis testified he had signed a $1 million contract with Warner Brothers. Hunter ordered him to sign an assignment document promising Cunningham $400,000 of the contract.

Court officials said the $400,000 assignment would be paid in the event Lewis does not settle with Cunningham or fails to appear at the August hearing. Lewis also paid $3,500 in cash to Cunningham.

Army, leftists clash in Lebanese city

United Press International
BEIRUT, Lebanon — Heavy fighting broke out Tuesday between Lebanese army regulars and leftist militiamen in Lebanon's southern city of Sidon.

The fighting began after a convoy of army trucks came under fire by the Lebanese Arab Army. A local press report said the fighting flared throughout Sidon, Lebanon's third largest city, 28 miles south of Beirut.

The shooting came less than two hours after a Lebanese army truck carrying a machine gun fire on the southern coastal highway. Travelers from the area said the men were members of the Lebanese Arab Army — a breakaway faction of some 500 men. They said at least two soldiers from the breakaway faction were killed and two others wounded when the army returned the fire.

The fighting in Sidon broke out about 2:45 p.m. Residents in Sidon, reached by telephone almost an hour later, said the fighting was still going on and "intensifying." They said the city was paralyzed, shops, stores and schools closed, and some residents fleeing their homes to seek refuge in shel-

Evangelist buys $650,000 Florida home

United Press International
CLEVELAND — Evangelist Rex Humbard, who last year said his television ministry was strapped for cash, admits he and his sons recently purchased a home and condominiums in Florida for $650,000. "My people don't give a hoot what I do with that money for," Humbard

Humbard said last Sept. 24 his ministry was $3.2 million in debt but purchased a home and condominiums near Palm Beach, Fla., with his sons, the Cleveland Press reported Monday in a copyright story. The Press said the Humbards bought the property in a posh section of Palm Beach, using $177,500 in cash as down payments.

Humbard, 60, told the newspaper he is responsible for raising $30 million for his ministry, gets a salary and has the right to buy the property. He said last fall's debt at his opulent Cathedral of Tomorrow, located in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, was eliminated because 200,000 of his followers each sent in $20.

The Humbard television ministry, which began 28 years ago, is seen on television stations worldwide, including 240 in the United States. It is broadcast in eight languages and is watched weekly by an estimated 1.4 million people in the United States.
