Here's what happened over the weekend and a review of some of this week's events:

Tennis—The First Annual Bryan-College Station Tennis Tournament was played Friday through Saturday at the Texas A&M University tennis courts, and top-seeded Larry Reynolds took the Men's A singles title with a 6-3, 1-6, 6-3 victory over David Drews.

In Men's B action, Texas A&M student Cecil Arnim defeated Jay Bigam 6-2, 7-5 in the finals, while Paul Parrish claimed the third spot.

Reynolds repeated as a first place winner in the Men's A doubles, teaming with John Briaud to win 6-3, 6-0 over S. Goody and David Bilbo.

In Men's B doubles, Norris Hodgin and Arnim beat Paul Parrish and Jerome Kapes, 6-3, 6-2.

In women's action, C. Hopeus defeated Elizabeth Bray, 6-3, 6-3 in the Women's A singles, and D. McMurrey and J. Briaud beat P. Moulton and D. Cope, 6-2, 6-2, to claim the Women's A doubles title. Elizabeth Bray and Tammy Massengale took the B doubles title.

In other tennis action, Texas A&M tennis star Max King and Bryan native Todd Kent took second place in the Fort Worth Open in men's doubles. They were defeated in the finals by Greg and Doug Davis of Lubbock, 6-7, 6-4, 6-4.

A future Aggie women's tennis player, Sonja Hutcherson, will compete in several national championship tournaments in July and August.

Hutcherson, who signed with Texas A&M in May, will compete in the United States Tennis Association girl's 18 singles after ranking in the top nine in the state during this year.

Track—Texas A&M trackster Linda Waltman set a world pentathlon record in the 800-meter race, and went on to finish third overall at the U.S. Olympic track and field trials in Eugene, Ore. Saturday.

Waltman, from Fort Worth, posted a time of 2:09.3, clipping a tenth of a second off the old record set last year by the Soviet Union's Yekaterina Smirnova.

Marilyn King of Millbrae, Calif. edged Waltman for second place in the overall standings. King, who made the Olympic pentathlon team for a record third time, piled up 4,199 points. Waltman finished eight points back with 4,191.

Meanwhile, in men's action, Aggie Tim Scott, Jim Howard, Leslie Kerr, Randy Hall, and Chuck Perry continue competition today in the Olympic trials in Eugene. In early action Monday, high hurdler Billy Busch did not make it to the finals after being eliminated in one of the primary heats.

Mike Glaspie and Curtis Dickey did not attend the meet, although they had qualified.

Swimming—The Texas A&M swimming team, competing for the first time ever in AAU summer competition, placed eight swimmers in the finals at the SMU Senior Circuit Swim Meet over the weekend in Dallas.

James Brown, Kord Reid, Pat Roche, Ed Cahill, Clay Brock, Chris Trost, Tracy Johnston, and Megan Jones made the finals.

Aggie coach Mel Nash said the team will continue competing and will train twice a day in preparation for the Senior Championships to be held July 10-13 in Austin.

Texas A&M track star Linda Waltman, shown here in an earlier meet, broke the pentathlon world record for the 880 meters this weekend at the U.S. Olympic trials in Eugene, Ore. Waltman, of Fort Worth, had a time of 2:09.30. The previous record was 2:09.4, set last year by Yekaterina Smirnova of the Soviet Union.
