Amidst the political discussion and big names competing in last weekend's Olympic Trials in Eugene, Ore., Texas A&M Univer-sity's Jim Howard silently made his mark.

Howard became the only Aggie to make the U.S. Olympic team when he cleared 7-3½ in the high jump competition Sunday, good for third place out of 18 competitors. The jump enabled him to make the U.S.

Howard and the other 649 members of the Olympic Team will receive honorary medals for their efforts July 30 at the White House after a Congessional bill was passed

Monday allocating government funds for the awards.

The winner of the high jump competition was Benn Fields, jumping for the Philadelphia Pioneers Track

Columbia, Mo., jumped 7-31/2, the same as Howard, but was awarded second place because he had fewer Six Texas A&M tracksters competed in the Trials, although eight Aggies initially qualified.

Tim Scott qualified in both the discus and the shot put, but finished eighth in the discus behind Mac Wil-

Jaeger, 15, ousts Wad to lead Wimbledon pl

United Press International WIMBLEDON, England — History will have to wait another day for Bjorn Borg, victim of the rain which washed out the second half of Monday's program in the waterlogged 94th Wimbledon Tennis Championships.

The 24-year-old Swede, champion for the last four years, needed to beat Hungarian Balasz Taroczy to set an all-time Wimbledon record of 32 straight victories. But the rains fell before the world's No. 1 player could make his center court date with destiny. The match was rescheduled for

Before the rain came, a breezy 15year-old pigtailed American, Andrea Jaeger, carved her own niche in the Wimbledon record books by ousting the No. 7 seed, 1977 champion Virginia Wade, for a place in the women's quarterfinals.

Jaeger next faces third-seeded Chris Evert Lloyd, last year's losing finalist and titleholder in 1974 and 1976, who beat fellow-American Joanne Russell, 6-3, 6-2.

In another experience vs. youth encounter, Billie Jean King, 36, who won the first of her record 21 Wimbledon titles before her opponent was born, saved a match-point before edging 17-year-old American Pam Shriver, 5-7, 7-6 (7-5), 10-8. She meets Navratilova next.

Fourth-seeded Australian Evonne Goolagong Cawley, the 1971 champion, scraped home, 6-7 (6-8), 6-3, 6-1, against 18-year-old Czech Hana Mandalikova who led, 3-1, in the second set until Cawley's 10game winning streak swayed the match. Navratilova, the 23-year-old Dal-bid for a third consecutive title with a 6-4, 6-4 victory over American Kathy Jordan, and sixth-seeded Turnbull overwhelmed American Lele Forood, 6-0, 6-2.

In other third-round action Monday, second-seeded Tracy Austin
