

Braves snap skid at six; Montreal ups lead in East

United Press International
Six straight losses were quite enough for Glenn Hubbard. Hubbard crashed a three-run homer off Don Stanhouse with two out in the ninth inning Tuesday night to cap a five-run rally that enabled the Atlanta Braves to snap a six-game losing streak with a 6-4 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Braves went into the ninth trailing 4-1 and were only one out away from defeat before an error by third baseman Ron Cey enabled Jeff Burroughs to reach first base. Pinch hitter Mike Lum walked and pinch hitter Charlie Spikes singled home a run to kayo reliever Rick Sutcliffe. Jerry Royster greeted reliever Steve Howe with a run-scoring single before Hubbard tagged Stanhouse, 0-2, for his sixth homer.

Rick Camp, 4-4, picked up the victory with one inning of relief.

The Dodgers scored twice in the second inning on a two-run single by starting pitcher Dave Goltz and they added two runs in the fourth when Cey reached first base on an error by Rafael Ramirez and Rick Monday followed with his fourth homer.

The Braves scored in the sixth on a double by Hubbard and a single by Gary Matthews and added two runs in the ninth on RBI singles by Charlie Spikes and Jerry Royster.

In other NL Games, Chicago trounced Pittsburgh 11-3, Cincinnati clobbered San Diego 9-2, Montreal walloped New York 11-5, San Francisco downed Houston 9-3 and St. Louis at Philadelphia was rained out.

Jerry Martin hit two homers, batted in four runs and scored three to lead the Cubs. Martin's third inning homer followed singles by Bill Buckner and Cliff Johnson and gave the Cubs a 3-0 lead. In the fifth, Johnson, formerly of the Houston Astros, hit his fifth homer, and on the next pitch by John Candelaria, 7-11, Martin knocked one over the left field wall for his 19th home run of the year.

Dave Concepcion's two-run homer capped a five-run fifth inning and powered the Reds. Ken Griffey, George Foster and Johnny Bench stroked RBI singles in the first inning to give the Reds a 3-0 lead off loser Gary Lucas, 4-7. Paul Moskau, 8-3, picked up the win. The win put the Reds within two games of Los Angeles and only two and a half behind the Astros in the national league west.

Gary Carter went 4-for-4 and Rodney Scott drove in four runs with a double and a triple to pace a 13-hit attack that carried the Expos and gave Montreal manager Dick Williams his 1,000th win as a major league manager. Montreal starter Bill Gullickson won his third consecutive game, bringing his record to 3-3 by scattering 10 hits over seven innings. John Pacella, 3-2, went two innings and suffered the loss.

Mike Sadek knocked in three runs with two singles and Gary Lavelle pitched four scoreless innings in relief to spark the Giants. Sadek's two-out single in the second off starter Gordon Pladson, 0-3, scored Darrell Evans to tie the score 1-1. In the fifth inning, he drove in two more runs with a bases loaded single to give the Giants a 7-3 lead. Lavelle, 5-5, relieved starter Jeff Stember, who was making his major-league debut.

Brazile walks out on Oilers

United Press International
SAN ANGELO — All-pro backer Robert Brazile walked out of the Houston Oilers training camp Tuesday in a dispute over pay. Team spokesman said Brazile is seeking a renegotiation of the years remaining on his contract. He had come to camp unhappy with his salary, which his agent described as unfair.

Houston dentist Dr. Jerry Argovitz, Brazile's representative, had recommended the linebacker not to camp nine days ago, saying "Robert is the most underpaid player in the entire National Football League."

Brazile attended Tuesday morning workout but was reported by team to be "missing from today's noon practice."

Head coach Bum Phillips moved backup Ted Thompson into Brazile's position, but said no definitive moves had been made.

"It's not necessary to go into who he was switched where. Heck, he's only been gone two hours and I hope this thing will be resolved," Phillips said.

The Oilers said Brazile had been contacted by his agent and advised to leave. Argovitz had been negotiating with Oilers Vice President Ladd Herzog and Assistant General Manager Pat Peppeler.

Phillips used a post-practice meeting with reporters to praise Brazile, a four-time all-pro who has led every game since joining the team in 1974.

There is no one in the NFL that is any harder or enjoys the game any more than Robert," Phillips said.

The coach refused to disclose if Brazile will fine Brazile. Argovitz has said his client is paid 10 percent of what some of the other linebackers in the league are making.

CO-OP OPPORTUNITY IN CANCER RESEARCH
On Weds., Aug. 6, at 5:30 p.m., in Rm. 502 of Rudder Tower, representatives from the Stehlin Cancer Research Foundation (associated with St. Joseph's Hospital in Houston) will show a film on the activities of the Foundation. They will then interview students who are interested in beginning co-op with them in the Fall semester. They plan to hire 3-6 students to begin work this Fall in their formal alternating semester Cooperative Education Program. Students interested in beginning their co-op work term in the Spring, 1981, semester are also encouraged to attend.
Students majoring in BIMS, pre-med, or any of the sciences are eligible for this program. See your college co-op coordinator for further information.
NOTE: In the past, the Stehlin Cancer Research Foundation only employed summer students. All students who worked for them were accepted into medical school. They are now changing their program to a formal Cooperative Education Program and hope to attract quality students.
