Sadek, Lavelle shine; S.F. rolls past Astros

United Press International
Mike Sadek knocked in three runs with two singles and Gary Lavelle pitched four scoreless innings in relief Tuesday night to spark the San Francisco Giants to a 9-3 victory over the Houston Astros.

Sadek's two-out single in the second off starter Gordie Pladson, 0-3, scored Darrell Evans to tie the score 1-1. In the fifth inning, he drove in two more runs with a bases loaded single to give the Giants a 7-3 lead.

Lavelle, 5-5, relieved starter Jeff Sember, who was making his major-league debut, after the Astros struck for three runs in the first three innings. Lavelle gave up seven hits and struck out four in his longest outing of the season.

Astros' pitchers issued eight walks and two of the Giants' runs in a four-run fourth inning and two in the fifth were scored by batters who had received bases-on-balls. After one out, Pladson was relieved in the fourth by Joaquin Andujar, who gave up three hits and a run. Bert Roberge relieved him in the fifth, and failed to retire a batter after loading the bases and giving up a two run single to Sadek.

Jack Clark's single drove in two runs in the fourth as the Giants overcame a 3-1 deficit to take a 5-3 lead. Mike Ivie added a two-run double in the eighth to close out the Giants' scoring.

Terry Puhl led of the Astros' first with his 12th homer of the season and Jose Cruz knocked in Houston's other two runs in the third with a triple.

Rangers beat Yanks; hot Indians win again

United Press International
Everyone knew George Brett could hit — but now he's using his fists instead of a bat.

Brett, who helped trigger a free-for-all and was subsequently ejected, extended his hitting streak to 18 games with a three-run homer in the fourth inning Tuesday night to power the Kansas City Royals to a 6-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Dennis Leonard raised his record to 12-8 and picked up his fifth win in his last six starts. The right-hander shut out the Tigers until Champ Summers hit his ninth homer with Steve Kemp aboard in the eighth.

Milt Wilcox retired the first nine batters he faced but gave up an infield single to Hal McRae after Willie Wilson walked to open the fourth. Brett followed with his 13th homer of the season.

Wilcox, 11-7, didn't give up another hit until Frank White beat out an infield single with one out in the eighth. Three runs scored when Wilson tripled, McRae doubled and Dave Chalk doubled.

Two of Wilcox's pitches forced Brett to hit the dirt the next time he batted following his homer. The second one angered him and after he fled to center, Brett rounded first and pointed an accusing finger at Wilcox. The pitcher threw down his glove and a bench-clearing brawl halted play for several minutes. No one was injured but Brett was removed from the game.

In other AL games, it was Boston 3, Milwaukee 1; Baltimore 8, Chicago 2; Texas 8, New York 1; and Cleveland 8, Toronto 5.

Rookie Dave Stapleton sparked a two-run eighth inning with a run-scoring single, lifting Boston over Milwaukee.

Terry Crowley's grand slam capped a five-run fifth inning that enabled Steve Stone to win his 17th game. Crowley's blast, his fifth of the year and third career grand slam, followed a bases-loaded single that scored Al Bumbry to tie the score. Crowley then followed with his homer off losing rookie Lamar Hoyt, 4-1. Cleveland won its 11th victory in the last 13 games. The Indians sent nine batters to the plate in a three-run second inning, highlighted by Dilone's first of three hits. After a rain delay of 62 minutes, nine more Indians went to bat in the fourth and Brohamer's single triggered a four-run inning.
