Texas wins, 3-2, behind Jenkins

United Press International
Ferguson Jenkins pitched a six-hitter Tuesday night and batterymate Jim Sundberg doubled home what proved to be the winning run in the sixth inning to lead the Texas Rangers to a 3-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays.

Jenkins struck out eight in going the distance to record his 12th victory against 10 defeats. Garth Iorg doubled in the first Blue Jay run in the eighth and Doug Ault drove in the final run in the ninth with a fielder's choice.

The Rangers scored twice in the first on a hit batsman, singles by Johnny Grubb and Al Oliver and a sacrifice fly by Rusty Staub.

A single by Pat Putnam and Sundberg's double off loser Luis Leal, 1-4, in the sixth produced what proved to be the winning run.

The Houston Astros announced Tuesday that Joaquin Andujar will start tonight in Pittsburgh, replacing Nolan Ryan, who was pulled from the lineup because of back pain.

Ryan left the team after his last outing in Chicago and returned to Houston, where he was examined by team physician Harold Brelsford.

Ryan underwent therapy and X-rays Tuesday but the results were not announced. A team spokesman said Ryan would remain in Houston and try to throw today.

Ryan won four games in August before suffering the back pain and losing to the Cubs last week. He is 9-8 for the season with a 3.23 ERA.

The Astros have also called up 10 players from their minor league clubs.

The team told six of the 10 players called up not to report to the major league team because they would not be used during the remaining month of the season.

Pitchers Bert Roberge and Bobby Sprowl, infielder Mike Fischlin and catcher Alan Knicely of Houston's Tucson farm club were told to report at the completion of the Pacific Coast League playoffs.

Pitchers Peter Ladd, Gary Wilson and Del Leatherwood, infielder Jimmy Sexton and outfielder Tom Wiedenbauer of Tucson and pitcher Stan Leland of Columbus were placed on the 40-man roster but told not to report.

Last week the Astros had added five minor leaguers to the major league roster.

Houston Astros Art Howe (left) and Danny Heep clown around in the dugout before a game this summer. The Astros had the night off Tuesday after playing a doubleheader against the Pirates Monday. The night off cost Houston, however, as the Los Angeles Dodgers moved into a tie for first with a 6-5 win over the Mets.

Aggie tidbits

The name of the Texas A&M University yearbook, originally The Longhorn, was changed to the Aggieland in 1949.

The last time Texas A&M went to the Cotton Bowl was in 1968, when Gene Stallings' Aggies defeated Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide, 20-16.

Texas A&M won the national championship in football in 1939 with a record of 11-0.

JESUS

Was he only a man? Was he really God and man? If he was so good, why did he get such a rotten deal when he lived in Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem? Why would a pagan Roman soldier watch him die and say he was the Son of God after a pagan judge condemned him after saying he found no fault in him? And before that, why did a voice from heaven say, "This is my beloved Son whom I really approve. Hear him!"

Where can we hear His voice today if not in the Bible? After all, didn't he give his approval to all the Old Testament by reading from all parts of it and saying it was perfect? And didn't he give his authority to the writers of the New Testament so it would be an equally perfect writing?

If this is God's Word, shouldn't we take it more seriously? We really try to at
