BATTLE BEYOND THE STARS (Plitt Cinema I&II, 846-6714) Richard Thomas stars in this take-off of Star Wars made about three years too late. Rated PG.

BLUE LAGOON (Plitt Cinema I&II) Supposedly is a story of natural love between two innocent adolescents — Brooke Shields and Chris Atkins, if you can believe that. Rated R.

CADDYSHACK (Manor East, ) Chevy Chase, Rodney Dangerfield and Bill Murray are outstanding in this country club version of "Animal House." Rated R.

CLINT EASTWOOD FILM FESTIVAL (Campus Theater) All the Clint Eastwood films someone could possibly watch in one night. Ratings vary; Friday midnight only.

DAWN OF THE DEAD (Plitt Cinema I&II) It's a color home movie about a barbeque party where people are the main course, so don't eat before the show. Rated R for repulsive.

THE ELECTRIC HORSEMAN (Rudder Theater) Jane Fonda and Robert Redford team up in a movie about free spirits, commercialism and (of course) love. Rated PG.

THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK (Manor East) Mark Hamill, Harrison Ford and Billy Dee Williams fight for justice in another chapter of the "Star Wars" adventures. Rated PG.

FRANKENSTEIN (Rudder 601) Boris Karloff is the misunderstood man-monster in the 1931 horror classic. Unrated; Thursday only.

PATTON (Campus Theater) George C. Scott gives an Oscar-winning performance as the successful, but controversial general. Rated PG; Saturday midnight only.

THE PINK PANTHER (Rudder Theater) Peter Sellers and David Nivens star in the original, which is still one of the funniest comedies of the Sixties. Rated PG; Sunday only.

RICHARD PRYOR — LIVE IN CONCERT (Rudder Theater) A typical Pryor concert — outrageous, irreverent and hysterical. Not for those easily offended. Rated R.

SMOKEY AND THE BANDIT II (Manor East) Again Burt Reynolds and Jerry Reed have a great time in a entertaining movie about speeding through the South without getting caught. Rated PG.

TERROR TRAIN (Rudder Theater) Aggies get a free preview of a soon-to-be-released film about a fraternity party gone haywire. Rated R; Saturday only.

URBAN COWBOY (Campus Theater) Yes, John Travolta portrays life through the eyes of a Rexall Ranger. Go for the soundtrack — or better yet, buy the soundtrack and miss the movie. Rated R.
