Filing for freshman offices closed

By MARGARITA JAIME
Battalion Reporter

A total of 94 Texas A&M University freshmen have filed to run for Class of '84 officers.

The entry breakdowns are as follows: president, 19; vice-president, 10; secretary/treasurer, 9; social secretary, 5; and student senator, 51.

"That's what we expected," Leah Whitby, election commissioner for Student Government said Wednesday. "It's about the same as last year."

In a telephone interview, Whitby said: "We had a pretty good voter turnout last year, and we're expecting a better one this year."

The last two years there has been a big boom in students filing for offices, and the freshmen are really getting involved in Student Government.

Entries for freshmen class offices closed Tuesday, and elections are scheduled to be held on Oct. 15 from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Election booths will be set up at the Harrington Education Complex, Sbsa Dining Hall, the Corps of Cadets Guard Room, the lobby of the Memorial Student Center, and the Commons.

Freshmen will vote for one candidate for each office, except student senator. Freshmen will vote for seven senator candidates.

A majority vote is required to elect class officers except senators, who will be determined by the seven highest totals.

Run-off elections will be held on Oct. 22, if necessary.

Friends wish you luck on a big exam. Good friends stick around to see how you did.

They say they were just hanging around killing time and by the way, "How did you do?" You tell them a celebration is in order and that you're buying the beer. "Look," one of them says, "If you did that well, buy us something special." Tonight, let it be Löwenbräu.

Löwenbräu. Here's to good friends.
