

Film:

Check theaters for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice.

BLUE LAGOON (Plitt Cinema I&II) Supposedly is a story of natural love between two innocent adolescents — Brooke Shields and Chris Atkins, if you can believe that. Thursday only. Rated R.

CADDYSHACK (Campus Theater) Chevy Chase, Rodney Dangerfield and Bill Murray are outstanding in this country club version of "Animal House." Rated R.

CHAPTER TWO (Rudder Theater) James Caan and Marsha Mason star in Neil Simon's story of a man trying to overcome the grief of his first wife's death and the thrill of finding a new love. Friday and Saturday, 7:30 and 9:45. Rated PG.

COAST TO COAST (Manor East) Robert Blake and Dyan Cannon. Fender-bender truck driving action for those of you who aren't tired of that sort of thing yet. Rated R.

OH, GOD! BOOK II (Plitt Cinema I&II) The continuing adventures of the Lord God, as played by George Burns. Rated PG.

ORDINARY PEOPLE (Plitt Cinema I&II) The movie which answers the question: Can Robert Redford direct? Starring Mary Tyler Moore and Donald Sutherland. Sneak preview Friday, rated PG.

SINGIN' IN THE RAIN (Rudder Theater) Sunday, 7:30. Gene Kelly and Donald O'Connor star in one of Hollywood's best films about Tinseltown. Sunday at 7:30 Unrated.

SMOKEY AND THE BANDIT II (Manor East) Again Burt Reynolds and Jerry Reed have a great time in a entertaining movie about speeding through the South without getting caught. Rated PG.

TERROR TRAIN (Manor East) A horror film with a Halloween-type murderer loose on a train with a fraternity party. Rated R.

THE INVISIBLE MAN (601 Rudder) Claude Rains stars as a mad scientist turned invisible who wants to rule the world. Special effects make this one a classic. 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. Thursday. Unrated.

THE KIDS ARE ALRIGHT (Rudder Theater) A must for rock fans of all ages, this film chronicles the career of The Who. Friday and Saturday midnight. Rated PG.

THE SHINING (Manor East) Stanley Kubrick's epic horror film which is well made but unfortunately not particularly scary. Friday and Saturday at midnight. Rated R.

Live Entertainment:

BACKSTAGE: Kevin Matheny will perform Thursday. Bart and Keith, a guitar-ventriloquist team, will appear Friday and guitarist Ken Appelt will perform Saturday. Cover is 75¢ each night.

GRINS: Eaglebone Whistle will perform Thursday and Friday. Saturday the music will be provided by Vince Bell.

LAKEVIEW: Dennis Ivey and the Waymen will appear Thursday night. Cover is $1 for women and $3 for men, with nickel draft beer. Saturday night Ivey and his band will share the stage with Roy Robbins and the Availables, from Waco. Cover is $3 per person.

ROSEWOOD JUNCTION: The Wommack Brothers Band will perform Thursday through Saturday. There is no cover Thursday night, and $1 cover both Friday and Saturday.

THE TEXAS HALL OF FAME: Thursday night, the Texas High Riders will perform. Cover is $2. On Friday, the Debonnaires will play, for a $2 cover. Crossfire, from Austin, will appear Saturday night. Cover is $3.

TJ's WHISKEY BAR: Fine Line will appear Friday and Saturday night. Admission is $2.

FOCUS

THE BATTALION

Policy: Focus will accept any stories, drawings or photographs that are submitted for publication, although the decision to publish lies solely with the editor. Pieces submitted, printed or not, will be returned upon request. Deadline is 5 p.m. the Thursday before publication.

Editor: Scot K. Meyer

Assistant Editor: Cathy Saathoff

Contributing to this issue were: Lee Roy Leschper, Kathleen McElroy, Kathleen A. Wakefield and Scott McCullar.

On The Cover: A convict cowboy flies off a Brahma bull during the first performance of the Texas Prison Rodeo last weekend in Huntsville. The rodeo runs through October and features Ernest Tubb and Faron Young this weekend. Cover photo by Lee Roy Leschper.