Channel 15 highlights

COSMOS: Sunday at 7 p.m. Harmony of the Worlds. Dr. Carl Sagan travels to New York City, to the American Southwest and to Prague, Czechoslovakia to demonstrate how generations of civilizations have viewed their connections to the cosmos.

SUNDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL: Sunday at 8 p.m. Texas A&M at Houston. Delayed telecast of Saturday's game in the Astrodome.

PRESENTE: Saturday at 10:30 p.m. The Cuban Boat People. Juan

Montenegro hosts the program which was taped at Fort McCoy, Wisconsin — the last of the relocation camps established for the Cuban refugees. The refugees discuss the events which led to the mass exodus.

The program will also show a concert by Eddie Palmieri, a Latin jazz musician, and a look at the Fort McCoy Cuban baseball team.

VIKINGS: Saturday at 8 p.m. Bolt From the Blue reveals how the Viking vessels dominated the lives of the adventurous Norsemen and enabled them to become legendary explorers. Ships discovered in Norwegian burial mounds provide the basis for this episode, the second in a ten-part series.

GREAT PERFORMANCES: Monday at 7 p.m. Tinker, Tailor, Soldier, Spy, George Smiley ransacks the past in search of a clue to the identity of the mole — the Soviet counterspy who is betraying British Intelligence. Adapted from the novel by John le Carre.

SOUNDSTAGE SPECIAL: Wednesday at 7 p.m. Dionne Warwick In Concert Warwick captivates her audience with a 23-song medley of her classic hits plus some of her latest recordings.

PETE: Wednesday at 7 p.m. New Orleans clarinetist Pete Fountain traces his career from its Dixieland roots in a New Orleans strip joint through appearances on the Lawrence Welk show to his present status as a top tourist attraction in the Crescent City. The program follows Pete through the Mardi Gras celebration and gives an insight into his personal life as well.
