We are Word Processing

We are Micom and Word Processing is our business. We didn't start out as a computer company. Or as a copier company. Or even as a general office equipment company. We started out and built our name solely on our ability to arrange the printed word quickly and efficiently.

We are Word Processing.
And Word Processing is so many things in the office today. Word Processing is writing, editing, revising, storing, filing and sorting your written documents in a fraction of the time they're taking now.

It's printed communication of uncompromising quality without spending valuable time and money doing it. It's a principle that creates a productive environment freeing you and your staff from tedious tasks. So that they can get on with their work, leaving you to get on with yours.

1981 Ag indoor track schedule Phils, Astros reflect on series

The Texas Aggies track team, defending Southwest Conference champions, opens its indoor season Jan. 17 in Norman, Okla., participating in the Sooner Invitational.

Here is the complete indoor schedule, as announced by Head Coach Charlie Thomas Thursday:

JAN. 17—Sooner Invitational, Norman, Okla.
JAN. 24—LSU Indoor, Baton Rouge, La.
JAN. 30 or 31—Dallas Invitational.
FEB. 7—Oklahoma City Classic.
FEB. 14—Brooks Invitational, Houston Astrodome.
FEB. 21—SWC Championships, Fort Worth.
MARCH 13-14—NCAA Championships, Detroit.

HOUSTON — The Philadelphia Phillies can win the big game. They proved it twice in two days.

"I can't believe," third baseman Mike Schmidt said, "what we had to overcome in this series."

First baseman Pete Rose called the series, won three games to two over the Houston Astros, the toughest he had ever experienced because, after losing two excruciating extra-inning games, the Phillies were within six outs of a fourth National League Championship Series embarrassment in five years on both Saturday afternoon and Sunday night.

"God, I'm proud of this team," Rose said.

Relief pitcher Tug McGraw beamed, "I'm just so proud to be a Philadelphia Phillie."

The Astros, never considered to be a championship club, went out running and gambling in the same gutsy style that had carried them farther than most people thought possible.

"I'm proud of this team, really proud of this team," fifth-game hero Terry Puhl said, "but I'm also very, very disappointed."

The Phillies now host the Kansas City Royals Tuesday in the first game of the World Series, and, for the first time, they won't be counted out if they fall behind.

"We now have to be considered when people pass out the courage," Schmidt said. "The Dodgers did it to us in 1977 and they were called courageous. Other teams did it to us, and the same was said of them. When they were dealing out courage in the past, they were dealing it to everybody but us."

Tears stained as many faces as champagne did in a raucous Astrodome locker room after doubles by Del Unser and Garry Maddox in the 10th inning Sunday provided the winning run in an 8-7 win. The key to the Phillies' new-found badge of courage, however, was some clutch hitting in the eighth inning of each of the final two games.

Trailing 2-0 Saturday, the Phillies put together four straight singles by Greg Gross, Lonnie Smith, Rose and Schmidt in the eighth inning to tie the game. Behind 5-2 in the eighth inning the next night, the Phillies strung singles by Larry Bowa, Bob Boone and Gross and a walk by Rose to start a five-run inning.

Astros manager Bill Virdon, who was deserted in the late inning both days by his bullpen, said he thought on a number of occasions his team would be playing the Royals Tuesday.

"They (the Phillies) were a deserving winner," he said. "They've come back when they've been beaten."

The Astros tried early in Sunday's game to put it away with Nolan Ryan on the mound, but Phillies second baseman Manny Trillo, the series' most valuable player, did in their design. His tough play on Denny Walling's grounder in the first inning stopped a run, and his relay home in the second cut down Luis Pujols.

Such was the Astros spirit, jolts, favoring a swollen ankle in Saturday's game, tried to go from first base on Craig Reardon's double despite limping back arounding second base.

The early losses hurt the when Ryan, the team's $1 million year pitcher, failed to hold a going into the eighth.

"You never know if you them," Ryan said. "You don't that way. I just knew I had to. They just kept fighting and showed a lot of heart. We did. It's a shame somebody had to go on."

The four consecutive extra-inning games was a National League Championship Series record.

"This was the most gutsy thing I've ever been through. My fielder Garry Maddox, every game was the same."

Aggie weekend results

Here's a look at a few sports items from the last few days at Aggieland:

FOOTBALL — The Aggies lost a heartbreaking decision to the Houston Cougars, 17-13, this weekend. The matchup put the two teams in the record books as the game began Saturday night and ended Sunday morning, the latest starting game ever. The contest lasted three hours and eight minutes and spanned two days.

Starting quarterback David Beal suffered a severely sprained wrist and will miss the Baylor game.

SOFTBALL — The women's team downed St. Mary's Thursday in both games of a doubleheader, 8-0 and 4-2.

The Aggies next action will be at the TAIAW State Tournament Friday and Saturday in Amarillo. As the top-seeded team going into State, A&M received a first round bye and will play the winner of the Tech-SFA game at 2:30 p.m.

GOLF — The women's team recently playing in Athens, Ga. University of Georgia Invitational.

Last week, the Aggie team fired an 886 for 54 holes and 12th in the Jim Corbett Golf in Baton Rouge. Oral Roberts the team title with an 858, the individual champion in a sett who fired a 206.

Brad Jones led the Aggies which earned him a tie for first place. Jacky Lee had a 221, Cromwell a 224, Danny Briggs and Paul Oglesby a 245.

CROSS COUNTRY — Team finished sixth in a field of 11 in the Indiana women's cross country meet Saturday. Ohio State was team title.

With a field of 104 runners had Marilee Matheny in 1980. Sandra Brown 31st, Lisa Mc 34th, Barbara Collinsworth 44th, Annie Muniz 53rd.

VOLLEYBALL — The volleyball team won one match and finished 12th in the University of Houston Invitational Saturday.

The Aggies lost to Purdue 16-18; beat North Texas State 15-10; lost to Southwest Miss 7-15, 15-10, 9-15; lost to Roberts, 14-16, 15-7, 9-15 and New Mexico State, 15-13, 15-15.
