Prison board ups '82 budget 72%

HUNTSVILLE, Texas — Texas prison officials, braced for a doubling of the state's prison population by 1990, will seek a 1982 budget of $533.4 million — 72 percent greater than the 1980-81 budget.

The Texas Department of Corrections board heard estimates Sunday that the prison population will climb from 28,733 to more than 50,000 in the next decade and approved the new budget request. The 1980-81 budget was $310.7 million. The vote was 7-1, with H. Zachry Jr. of San Antonio voting no.

TDC Director Jim Estelle told the board he had planned to seek a new prison unit but asked for three at the recommendation of Gov. B. Clements. The budget must clear both Clements and the legislature before it can become reality.

Estelle said one cost increase will be security guards because TDC will try to reduce the inmate to guard ratio from 13 to 1 to 10 to 1 by hiring 1,209 new guards.

The proposed budget also will include pay raises intended to reduce the 60 percent turnover rate among TDC officers, Estelle said.

Texas already has the largest prison population in the nation. Prison officials said they have grown worried about the steady increase in prison population because overcrowding increases tension.
