Burglars: Beware of boa's bite

United Press International EL PASO, Texas — Pet-loving burglars either have a hungry 6-foot boa constrictor on their hands, or else the slithery reptile is by now ad-libbing in its quest for food, the owner said Tuesday.

Thieves broke into the William Sullivan home last week while the family was out of town and took a number of items, including the 8year-old snake.

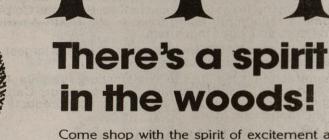

"But its feeding time is right about now, and when it gets hungry, it bites. I'm afraid if it bites whoever has it, that will be the end of it," she
