Aggie ski club to head for slopes

By GLENN KRAMPOTA
Battalion Reporter

Jean-Claude Killy probably will not be there. And chances are former President Gerald Ford will be doing his skiing elsewhere, too. But 120 Aggies will be in Breckenridge, Colo., Jan. 10-17 on a ski trip sponsored by the Texas A&M University Snow Ski Club. The trip is open to all club members, said Terry Gerber, vice-president. The cost of the ski trip depends on the method of transportation used to get to Breckenridge. Gerber said the cost by plane is $375; by bus, $315. This price includes transportation, housing in condominiums and four days of lift tickets. No skill or experience is needed to join the club, although there is a $4 membership fee, Gerber said. She estimated that over 50 percent of those going on the trip are beginners. Gerber said anyone interested in going on the trip should join the club and sign a waiting list at the Snow Ski Club cubicle in the Student Programs Office. Although the 120 spaces allocated for the trip are filled right now, Gerber said, many students often cancel their reservations, giving those on the waiting list a good chance to go on the trip. On Jan. 10, Gerber said, 34 people will depart from Houston on a Continental Airlines flight, and 86 people will leave College Station on Jan. 9, aboard buses. She said there will likely be more vacancies or no-shows on the buses. A party and ski races are among activities planned for the trip, Gerber said. Members will be able to compete against both the clock and someone of similar skiing ability. In addition, she said, Texas A&M club members may have a chance to race against members of the University of Houston ski club. A ski trip has also been scheduled for spring break, Gerber said. Members will either go to Crested Butte or Steamboat Springs, both of which are in Colorado. Those desiring further information on any ski club activity may come by the cubicle or call 845-2843.

MSC gallery shows Ahysen's seaside art

If you're yearning for some seaside scenery and don't have time for a three-hour drive to Galveston, travel to the Memorial Student Center Gallery. Beginning with a reception at 7 p.m. Thursday, the MSC Arts Committee will exhibit seascape paintings by Harry Ahysen, the 1980 Texas State Artist of the Year. The Port Arthur native has art degrees from the University of Texas at Austin and the University of Houston. Ahysen's commissioned work includes a painting of Jacques Cousteau's ship, which was presented to the marine biologist by Texas A&M University at Galveston in 1972. He painted "Sunrise at High Island," the 1977-78 cover of Southwestern Bell telephone directories distributed to Texas cities.
