Dallas grabs dramatic win

United Press International
ST. LOUIS — Fighting to hold back the tears, St. Louis cornerback Roger Wehrli tried to explain the desperation pass in the end zone that gave the Dallas Cowboys a dramatic 27-24 victory Sunday over the Cardinals.

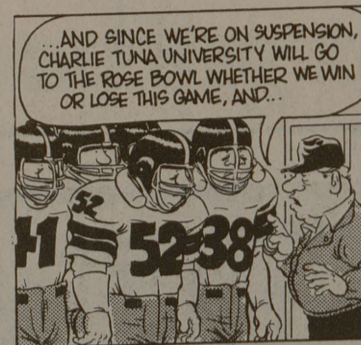

"Tony Hill did a good job of screening me off from the ball with his back," said Wehrli. "I should have figured out a way to get around him, but I couldn't. It all happened so fast."

In a patented Dallas finish, the Cowboys were trailing 24-20 when they got the ball back at their own 31-yard line with 1:52 left on the clock and two timeouts.

On a fourth-and-five with 46 seconds remaining, White faced a stiff pass rush but lobbed a ball to the goal line, where Hill leaped high and came down for a 28-yard touchdown.

Aggies win two on road; now 6-0

The Texas A&M University women's soccer team keeps rolling toward another fine year as it downed two SWC teams this weekend on the road.

In one of its toughest matchups of the season, the Ag team downed Texas, 5-3, to clinch a trip to the national tournament Nov. 14-16 in Colorado. On Sunday, the Aggies suffered a slight letdown and slipped past a surprisingly strong Baylor Bears squad, 2-1.

The wins put A&M at 6-0 on the year.

Head Coach Rob Borgeson was surprised at the high scoring of the Aggie women this fall.

Through six games, A&M has scored 29 goals, and has given up only seven. Also, the Aggies' defense has shut out opponents seven halves, and the offense has been shut out only one half.

"It's probably the highest record we've ever had," said son. "Usually, you'd have scores."

Against the Longhorns, were led by Carol Sullivan Smith, who each scored two goals. Brenda Grisham added another goal on the 11th and 12th minutes through six games. She scored five.

On Sunday, Carol Grisham scored her fourth goal of the season. Ask To and Stephanie Barrett netted the goals.

This Saturday, the Aggies don't ask in Austin once again for the Eisenhower Tournament, an event that University dominated the past two years, took it.

"They've invited a lot of the world of W year," said Borgeson. "I'm in the stronger tourney."

Last season at the national level, he was quarterfinalist. Texas A&M took fifth place in their pool to Stanford. In 1979-80, with that s finished with a 2-2-1 record. Recovering from a losing record, he took the national title, Wilson

Women lose matches

The Texas A&M women's volleyball team flew back to Texas Sunday after a disastrous week in California, where they lost all six of their matches during the past week.

Tuesday night, the Ags dropped three straight games to San Diego State University in San Diego. That match set the tone for things to come, as the Aggies advanced from there to the UCLA Invitational in Los Angeles.

A&M head coach Terry Condon and her assistant Lindy Vivas, both former Bruin standouts, were not greeted with a warm homecoming, as the Ags dropped all five of their preliminary bracket matches Friday and Saturday.

In one of their better following Sunday, the Aggies lost to Arizona at the hands of Wilson. Wilson, ranked fifth in the nation, was a perennial persecutor.

They won in straight sets. Our program 9, 15-8. UC-Irvine also met the Aggies in a match that was a bit of a stubborn Aggie team before with just three games, 15-11. I must say, the University of Washington had a chance to take the title. Wilson glared their first to A&M before the door as back to take a 14-16, 15-8, as A&M plory, and the University of they're (th ranked third in the nation. He to say the an obviously downcast Aggie in the pr 15-10, 15-4.

The Aggies, now 19-30 on the year, will host the Texas State Championship this weekend at the White Coliseum.

Lacrosse team now 4-0

SMU found its first scrimmage of the year a little too hot to handle Saturday as Texas A&M scored 12 times in routing the Mustangs 12-1 in men's lacrosse action. The Aggie win raised the record to 4-0.
