Winn leads Aggs in victory as Ladies dominate scrimmage

By JON HEIDKTE

Texas A&M women's basketball team swept St. Mary's Wednesday in a scrimmage divided into three separate halves. The Aggie Ladies took three straight 20-minute halves from the Rattlers from San Antonio by the scores of 50-36, 36-29 and 50-29.

Coach Cheri Rapp saw a definite improvement in her club from Saturday's scrimmage with Tyler. "Our defense played much better," she said, "and our fastbreak allowed us to score a lot of easy baskets."

The Aggies were in complete control of the first and third periods, but had to use a late scoring spree to secure the seven-point second period win.

The Aggies were led by Sherry Winn, a transfer from Houston. "We didn't keep a book, but she (Winn) had to be the leading scorer," Rapp said. Winn handled the fastbreak offense extremely well, and scored quite a few baskets on layups off the break.

Rapp was also pleased with the play of Kelly Krauskopf and duRae

Gill. "Gill played very well on the press and Krauskopf just played a good all-around game," she said.

But despite the victory, Rapp says the Aggies still have a long way to go. "We still need to work on our shooting, and we need to add a new offense to our system," she said.

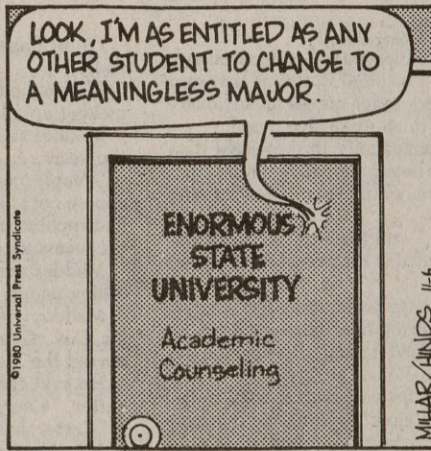

Rapp said the Aggies are still looking for a starting five. "We still haven't come up with a top five, but we're getting closer," she said.

The Aggies will have two more scrimmages to decide on a starting five before the season opens. Saturday, A&M will travel to Cy Fair High School in Houston to take on an old rival, the University of Houston at 5:30 p.m.

The Aggies open the season Nov. 14 against Southeast Louisiana in G. Rollie White at 7:30 p.m.

Autocross full of 'excitement'

By RICK STOLLE

As the Aggie football team was spinning its wheels in Dallas, the A&M Sports Car Club Aggie Autocross was going off with a bang at the Texas World Speedway.

In fact, there were six engine blowouts, several spinouts and accidents as well as one engine fire that was put out immediately as the car pulled off the track.

"The racers were really pushing their cars hard so we kind of expected a few accidents," said club president Chuck Schmitt.

"The weather was perfect and the racing was fantastic," said Jay Bittle, vice-president of the club and co-event master. All racers had a good time and nobody left disappointed, he said.

A total of 120 cars raced at the speedway Saturday and Sunday with the division winners getting trophies. The top time of the day received a bottle of champagne.

The racers were divided into car classifications. The stock class involves all kinds of cars in the original production condition. No modifications have been made to the cars and they are then broken down further into A-F classification that are based on the car size, weight and engine displacement.

The prepared classification involves cars that have been modified from the original condition. They still run on street tires but have had engine, suspension and structural changes to give the car more speed. Yet, the cars are still able to be run on the street.

The final class is the modified group. These cars are true racing cars and are not run on the street.

The autocross was run on the road race course at the speedway since the club was not able to use the high bank turns. The course was a total distance of 1.6 miles.

Tennis teams on the road again

By RICK STOLLE
Battalion Staff
Both Texas A&M tennis teams take to the road as the men and women will travel to Lake Conroe to compete in the April Sound Invitational Friday through Sunday.

The competition will be keen as many of the Southwest Conference powerhouses will be there. TCU, the fourth ranked team in the nation last year, SMU, perennial top twenty finisher, the University of Houston, the University of Texas and Trinity University are slated to compete.

The men did fairly well in the weekend competing in the singles against Trinity and Texas. In the doubles, singles players reached the finals while one went on to the quarterfinals and the other to the semifinals as well.

"We didn't play as well as we would have liked but this was a very good week of tennis," said coach David Kent. "We had a lot of bounce back and forth, but a very good tennis."

The team will remain in Lake Conroe for the April Sound Invitational.

The doubles teams are headed by Reid Freeman-Brian and Trey Schutz-Jim Grubert. Beyond that, al-Tom Judson, Leonard Stapp, King and Robert Stapp were the doubles teams. So far this fall, the doubles teams have been the best of the team.

All ten men will compete in the singles which have been somewhat of a disappointment for Kent.

"We need to work on singles," said, "but overall I have been pleased with the team."

The women, who had a bye week in the competition last week, had a trip due to illness. Nueces Maylen Hooten were the top ranked team in the women's division of the tournament.

The doubles teams are headed by Hutcherson-Hooten, the second ranked team, Amy Laura Hanna, Pam Hill-Lizandez and Judy Williams-Hinkle. Mary Hise will compete in singles.

"Our doubles are hurt," said coach Jan Carter. "We feel that the teams we do well."
