Now await final standings

Aggies' soccer team tied by Owls

By RICHARD OLIVER
Sports Editor
The 1980 season has been full of surprises for Telmo Franco and his Texas A&M University men's soccer team, and one of the bigger surprises came Saturday.

The Aggies roared into Houston intent on taking the Rice Owls and clinching a third place finish in the fall SWC race. Instead, the Owls rose up and handed A&M a 1-1 tie and threw a wrench into the Aggies' finish in front of approximately 300 fans.

Texas A&M initially went to Houston hoping for a second place SWC finish, but Texas won two games last weekend against Texas Tech and Arkansas to take that position.

"We played not too good, not too bad," said Franco Sunday night. "We played a good game. Rice is not as weak as their record indicates. We had a strong defense, but our offensive line is not as strong as our defensive line just yet. We need the same quality both ways."

A&M scored on a Paul Winston goal, his ninth of the year, five minutes into the game. The Aggies are now 6-3-3 for the season and await the results of other weekend league games to determine their final season standing.

"They (Aggie players) are very happy for their contribution to the A&M soccer program," Franco said. "There's no way anyone should feel bad. We're planning to keep playing.

We'll play in some tournaments. We're anxious to get more experience in the fall."

Franco said several soccer coaches from the Dallas area have contacted him about the program, and two players have notified the head coach they will be transferring to A&M to join the Aggies in the spring.

The Aggies will play Lamar Saturday in Beaumont.

Women's soccer team takes fourth at Austin Tournament

The top-seeded Texas A&M women's soccer team ended the stretch this weekend and finished a surprising poor fourth in the Austin Tournament in Austin. The Aggies were forced to play three games in a row Sunday morning beginning at 9:30 and lost two of them, including a consolation final loss to Memorial of Houston.

The first loss came to The Sting, which allowed the Aggies only 14 shots on goal in winning, 1-0. Borgeson and all the shots were "excellent, but their goalie just topped them."

The Aggies lost a heartbreaker to Memorial on a series of "shootout" kicks. The game ended in a 0-0 tie, so the two teams were allowed five shots on goal apiece from 35 yards away. Memorial won that contest 1-0 to take the victory.

Borgeson was angry over the tournament format, which forced the Aggies to play three straight games despite being top-seeded.

"It didn't seem like they (tournament officials) gave any consideration to the fact we were top-seeded," he said.

Fernandez scores win over Summell

Texas A&M's sophomore sensation Liliana Fernandez scored a 6-2, 4-6, 6-1 win Saturday over North Texas State's Gwenn Summell to take the championship at the April Sound Invitational at Lake Conroe.

"She (Fernandez) just wore her (Summell) down," said Aggie Head Coach Jan Cannon. "She's so proud of herself ... she's outlasting some people. We've got her on a weight-running program."

IM Game Plan

TABLE TENNIS DOUBLES: Schedules for Table Tennis Doubles are available in the Intramural Office. Play begins this evening (Monday, November 10) in Room 256 of G. Rollie White. If you have not yet checked your schedule, be sure to do so today. You may be playing tonight!

CROSS COUNTRY MEET: The three mile Intramural Cross Country Meet will be held tomorrow afternoon (Tuesday, November 11) at 5:30 p.m. The race will begin at the intersection of Beef Cattle Road and Joe Routh Blvd. A limited number of late entries will be accepted prior to the race. However, the race will start at 5:30 p.m., so please be prompt.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL: Although entries are three weeks away, now is the time to be organizing your IM Basketball teams. Entries will open on Monday, December 1. Interested persons should also be aware that a "super" league will also be offered this year. This super league will be open to faculty, students, staff, and spouses and will be highly competitive. Additional information will be forthcoming from the IM Office.

BASKETBALL OFFICIALS: Now is also the time to begin planning to be an Intramural Basketball Official. The initial clinic will be held on Monday, December 1 at 7 p.m. in Room 262 of G. Rollie White. Training will be provided so experience is not a prerequisite. If you are interested, stop by the IM Office this month and speak to Dave Kerr or Lynette Ginn.

INTRAMURAL LOGO CONTEST: The IM Dept. is sponsoring a logo contest to establish a new logo for the department. The winning logo will be used primarily on Intramural Championship awards. Rules and guidelines for the contest will be available in the Intramural Office after December 1. The contest will be conducted over an extended period of time during the second semester.

Action At Penberthy

In addition to IM flag football, each night flickerball and soccer action has been underway at the Penberthy Intramural Complex.

Handball Playoffs Underway

Recreational facility usage is on the rise. The number of individuals using the A&M recreational facilities during September and October increased in 1980 by nearly 15,000 over the 1979 total. The records indicate that 68,473 people have utilized the facilities in September and October of 1980 as compared to 53,617 in 1979. Keep recreating, Ags!

Divisional champs have been determined in Handball Singles and All-University playoffs have begun.

In Men's Class A action, Fish Champ Jeff Crofton of B-2 will square off against Dorm Champ John Welch of Dunn. In the other semifinal match, the Corps' Richard Harrison of K-1 will challenge Independent representative Jeff Bronson.

The winners of these two matches will meet tomorrow evening for the All-U Class A title.

Men's B action also concludes tomorrow night when Corps champ John McAdams of D-1 goes up against the Independent representative Tim Feickert.

The Women's Class B All-U title will be determined when Independent winner Beth Warinner takes on the winner of the Kimberly Holtz (Sq. 14) / Lisa Hatman (Hobby/Neely) match.

The Women's Class A title went to Sue Oakleaf.

Michelle Pringle delivers the ball in her Class A bowling match. Although she lost the match, Michelle can gain consolation by being our McDonald's "Be Our Guest" winner this week. She can pick up her McDonald's guest card in the IM office.

Water Polo Finals

All-University Water Polo action was completed last Thursday with finals in Men's, Women's, and Co-Rec A and B divisions.

Wet Bologna defeated the Water Wonders to capture the Men's Class A title while Spyro Gyra defeated Moses for the Class B crown.

The Mermaids were victorious over the Water Wonders in Women's A competition. Women's Class B action saw the Beauties topping the Krueger Kats.

Co-Rec A was won by The Team, who defeated Wet 'N Wild while Co-Rec B was won by Logan's Legion who stopped the Water Rats.
