EXAMINE THE WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY WITH FLUOR OCEAN SERVICES
... Plan to Attend Our "Day On Campus" Friday, November 14
Graduating engineers can find a rare challenge in offshore/marine engineering. Our expertise in the design of marine terminals, pipelines and oil & gas production facilities has gained us worldwide respect. Our work takes us from Texas to Thailand.
We will be coming to your campus on Friday, November 14 to tell you more about our work, and about our company. If you are graduating in December with a degree in Civil, Electrical, Mechanical or Chemical Engineering, we hope you will meet with us.
Our recruiter can give you full details on the many challenging career paths available at Fluor Ocean Services.
While we are a large company with extensive resources, we listen to our engineers and encourage them to try new ways to solve problems. Our salaries and benefits are very competitive, and our large projected growth means plenty of advancement potential.
Make your appointment through the Campus Placement Office.
