

Aggie-Hog facts

Here's a few facts about the Texas A&M-Arkansas game this Saturday in Fayetteville:

KICKOFF — 1 p.m.
CROWD — Sellout (capacity 41,221).

SERIES — This will be the 54th meeting. A&M has won 19, Arkansas has won 31 and there have been three ties. Arkansas has won the last three. The last A&M win was 31-10 at Little Rock in 1976.

1980 A&M RECORD — Texas A&M (2-6): A&M 23, Ole Miss 20, Georgia 42, A&M 0; Penn State 25, A&M 9; A&M 41, Texas Tech 21; Houston 17, A&M 13; Baylor 46, A&M 7; Rice 10, A&M 6; SMU 27, A&M 0.

LAST YEAR — Arkansas capitalized on two fourth-quarter interceptions to break open a relatively tight contest and went on to take a 22-10 victory at Kyle Field. The Aggies played without the services of ace tailback Curtis Dickey who was injured. Johnny Hector was A&M's leading rusher with 71 yards.

COACHES — A&M's Tom Wilson has a 12-13 record since taking over the head job at mid-season in 1978. Lou Holtz is in his fourth season at Arkansas and has a record of 34-9-1.

MUTUAL RADIO — Dave Woodman and Mike Nail will be the announcers on Mutual's 18-station Texas network: Abilene (KEAN-FM), Amarillo (KGNC), Austin (KOKE), Beaumont (KAYC), Bryan-College Station (KTAM), Corpus Christi (KSIX), Dallas (KRLL), El Paso (XEWB), Houston (KQUE-FM), Longview-Marshall (KLUE), Lubbock (KLLL-FM), Edinburg (KURV), Midland-Odessa (KWEL), San Angelo (KWLW-FM), San Antonio (WOAL), Temple (KTEM), Tyler (KTYL), Waco (KKIK).

OTHER SWC GAMES — In addition to A&M-Arkansas, the SWC schedule has Baylor at Rice, SMU at Texas Tech and Texas at TCU (all at 2 p.m.). Houston has an open date.

Volleyball squad wins again at home

The Texas A&M women's volleyball team tuned up for their match against a Mexican club tonight with a convincing five-game win over Lamar University at G. Rollie White Coliseum Wednesday night.

Indicating how far they've come this season, the Ags, who'd lost to the Cardinals twice earlier this season before beating the Beaumont team two weeks ago, evened the season slate with an 11-15, 15-4, 16-14, 8-15, 15-7 victory.

Playing in front of a sparse crowd, (43, counting the four custodians) the A&M squad continued to play with the new-found confidence it discovered at the state tournament last weekend when it surprisingly qualified for the regional tournament with a fourth-place finish.

Playing the majority of the match with pairs of freshmen, sophomores and juniors on the floor, the Aggies upped their season record to 22-30, while the Cardinals dropped to 25-28.

Tonight at 7, the Aggies take on the Inde Rebels, Mexico's national champions the past two years, at G. Rollie White. The Rebels have eight players that are or were on the national team. A&M is the seventh of nine college stops the Rebels make in their United States tour.

Wednesday night's match was a see-saw affair with both teams seemingly taking control at various stages. Two months ago, the Aggies would probably have lost this game. But under the guidance of Head Coach Terry Condon and her assistant Lindy Vivas, the young squad has started to realize its potential and has won several close matches recently. Lamar raced out to a 9-3 lead in the first game until the Ags came thundering back with six straight points of their own. It wasn't enough, though, as the Cardinals seemed on their way to a third victory over A&M this season. The second game was all A&M, with sophomore Sue Wetzel and junior Wendy Wilson spiking the ball authoritatively. The third game was the most hotly contested, with the Cards taking an 11-6 lead, before A&M scored six straight points to make it 12-11 A&M. The Cardinals scored two more to make it game point, but the Aggies stormed back to win it. Instead of rolling over, the Cardinals came back with an easy win in the fourth game, but it all went for naught as the Aggies thrashed them in the rubber game to win the match.

'Panty races,' polo planned

By RICK STOLLE

Automobile polo, panty races, scavenger hunts and a party are some of the events the Texas A&M Sports Car Club has scheduled for 3 p.m. Saturday in the parking lot of the Zachry Engineering Center.

"We decided to do something a little different," said Linc Conn, club public relations director. "It is an experiment but it should be a fun one."

Panty races, he said, are games where a driver and his navigator race to a given point on the parking lot. The navigator must run to another point and pick up a pair of panties. Upon returning to the car, the driver must put the panties on while driving to the starting point.

The panty races are the only game that can be classified as races. The other games involve communication between the driver and the navigator.

In automobile polo, the navigator has a broom and must guide a ball and the driver from one end of the parking lot to the other. The ball will go into a goal that will be set up. The driver will not be able to see the ball and must rely upon the navigator's instructions.

In another game, the driver is blindfolded and must rely on the navigator again for instructions through a course.

"All the games are timed events and we just want to emphasize the communication between the driver and navigator," said Conn.

After all the games behind Zachry, the club will have a scavenger hunt. The directions during the hunt will lead to the site of a party the club is having.

"We are going to pick up things like spark plugs, old tires, brake shoes and at each pick-up there will be directions to the next site and ultimately," he said, "the site of the party."

The club is also having a car display Friday at Rudder Tower. Members will answer any questions about the club.

Ags finish 4th at golf tourney

Despite tying Oklahoma for third place after one round of play at the Harvey Penick Invitational Golf Tournament in Austin Monday, Texas A&M watched Wednesday as the Sooners slipped past Texas, the Aggies and Houston for the event title.

The Aggie men faded to fourth, posting a 1,084 three-day total.

Eighteen teams participated in the tournament. Oklahoma beat out the Longhorns by one stroke, finishing with a 1,064 total to Texas' 1,065. Houston was third at 1,069.

The individual medalist was Ray Barr of Houston, who finished with a 206.

Here are the A&M finishers: Bart Cobb, 213; Jay Townsend, 214; Richard Cromwell, 216; Gary Krueger, 218; Danny Briggs, 223; Mark Esler, 234.
