Pearson breaks receiving record

United Press International
IRVING (UPI) — Bob Hayes wrote some of the most glamorous chapters in the 21-year history of the Dallas Cowboys, but Drew Pearson erased Hayes' name from at least one segment of the club's record book Sunday.

"Today was one of the highlights of my career," said Pearson. "I'm glad it came in a victory."

Pearson became the all-time Dallas pass catcher in the Cowboys' 31-21 win over the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday, running his career reception total to 366 — one more than Hayes caught during his tenure with the club.

The catch that tied the record was a touchdown of 14 yards which put Dallas in front for the first time all day. The record setter came during the drive which clinched the victory.

"I'm glad we got it out of the way," Pearson said. "There was a lot of pressure as I got closer to the record. Now I can concentrate on other things."

"Danny White has done a good job taking over this football team. I've been fortunate to work with quarterbacks like Roger Staubach for seven years and now have a guy like Danny to step in and take over. I've just been lucky to play with guys like those two."

White, when asked about his three-touchdown performance Sunday, was more anxious to talk about Pearson.

"I was thrilled helping to contribute to Drew's record," said White. "That's a real special thing and I was real happy to play a little part in that."

"On his record catch he was not the primary receiver. He was probably about the third man to go to in that situation. But he broke open. The ball actually slipped out of my hand, but he made a great catch."

Pearson's record was one of three milestones reached in the game.

Tony Dorsett, in gaining 122 yards, went over the 100-yard mark for the 17th time in his career. That equaled a club record first set by Calvin Hill.

And St. Louis receiver Mel Gray caught a pass for the 100th straight game. It was a 69-yard touchdown throw from Jim Hart.

University of Arkansas quarterback Tom Jones (11) prepares to 'meet' Aggie defensive end Keith Baldwin (80) as Baldwin goes high in an effort to stop the flashy quarterback. Freshman cornerback Greg Williams (19) seems to be carefully eyeing the situation. Despite a dramatic comeback, A&M lost to the Hogs 27-24. The Aggies are back in action Saturday against the 1-9 TCU Horned Frogs. A&M carries a 2-7 record into the game.

Oakland sneaks by Seattle, 19-17

A last minute field goal by Oakland's Chris Bahr led the Oakland Raiders to a come-from-behind victory over the Seattle Seahawks 19-17. Former Texas A&M standout, Lester Hayes set up the winning drive with an interception of a Zorn pass late in the game. Oakland quarterback, Jim Plunket, led the team quickly down the field into goal position.

It was the fifth straight win for the Raiders and the fourth straight for the Seahawks.
