

Battalion Classifieds

Customer shoots two bandits

HOUSTON — Robbery Felicia Chima said Tuesday another all-night grocery store was robbed by two bandits, who, despite being wounded, a gun, shot two bandits and appeared into the night.

Police asked Spanish-language radio stations to broadcast the man with a Spanish name. They wanted him as a witness. He foiled mini-grocery hold-up, tell him about a possible reward to $2,500.

"Probably we both would be dead if it had not been for the customer," said Chima. The store had been robbed before.

The dead bandit was identified as Jose Manuel Orozco, 38, a man charged with aggravated robbery, Alfonso Rudy Soto, 31, wounded in the right hip, arrested at a hospital and was in condition.

Chima said the customer, 6 feet 6 inches tall, thin and accented, was standing at the counter when two men carrying tools and wearing bandanas over their mouths burst in about 10:30 Sunday.

She said the man intervened, the bandits threatened her, the bandit shot the customer down, the wounded man jumped up and killed one bandit and wounded the other before disappearing.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

Chima said at first she was the customer because she had a gun in his pocket when he came in. "I wondered if he was to rob us, too," she said. "That's why he ran."

But Detective J. W. Clampton another theory. He said the customer's Spanish accent suggested he might have been an illegal alien afraid he would be deported by the Texas (rying a gun or being involved in shooting. Clampton said police longer arrest aliens for deportation purposes.

"You'll have to remember Texas," police Lt. Allen said. "It's a well-known fact that the Southwest fend for themselves a little better."

Spokesman Ron Arnesen of land Corp., owner of the 7-11 store for the record check to be made, said the customer appeared to be eligible for the Houston Metropolitan Crime Council's reward of $1,000 to $2,500, the larger sum because the customer was wounded.

Chima said the customer asked her to call a taxi for him. She bought a pack of cigarettes and matches. She said the bandit entered while she was counting change.

She said she showed the cash register but they already granted the contract. That's when he opened, she said, and beat clerk Abraham Tahmasi, 23, on the police said was not seriously injured.

Chima said the customer vened, saying, "Hold it boys, push her. Take it easy." She Orozco immediately shot the tomer, who muttered, "Oh, and fell to the floor as if dead."

Moments later, when the were looking away, the customer jumped up, yelled, "Drop guns" and started shooting. Orozco four times and wounded Soto in the hip.

Chima said the customer put the gun back in his pocket and ran out toward an apartment complex nearby.

HELP WANTED
ADMINISTRATIVE POSITION
Involving aircraft scheduling, secretarial and bookkeeping duties. Experience in aviation activities or pilot's license helpful but not required. Inquire at or call BRAZOS AVIATION 696-8767. 5615

HELP WANTED
WANTED
Two part time waitresses to work at Best Nugget Lounge, Hearne, Tx. Transportation provided.
Call for appointment 279-9045. 5615

HELP WANTED
Q-BEAM CORPORATION
is seeking production workers for assembly and light packaging in their manufacturing plant. Full time or part time available.
Apply in person only. 4109 College Main (corner of Clay) 5415

FULL OR PART TIME
*Day Shift
*Night shift (til 10pm.)
*Weekends
*Flexible hours to fit your schedule
*Rapid advancement
*Cashier experience helpful
Starting Salary $3.50/hour
Apply in person only. 9:30-11:30am. (if possible)
WHATABURGER
College Station 105 Dominik 6th
Bryan 1101 Texas 5615

ELECTRIC PARTS COUNTER SALES PERSON FOR MID-STATE ELECTRONIC SUPPLY CALL 822-4862 521fn

PART-TIME HELP WANTED. GRAPEVINE PERSONALITY. 696-3411. EOE 11fn

STEINBECK'S RESTAURANT and BAR
Need experienced bartenders, cooks and waitresses. All shifts. Flexible hours.
Apply in person only between 4-6 p.m.
775-5317 202 E. Carson 5816

SWENSEN'S
Waiters, waitresses, fountains, cooks, and dishwashers.
Pick up an application at Culpepper Plaza College Station 1901fn

SPECIAL NOTICE
CHEMISTRY MAJORS
Cooperative Education positions are available for the Spring Term with major chemical firms in the Houston area. You remain a student at TAMU while getting experience in the chemical industry (Research and Development).
Salaries range from $950-$1200 per month.
Contact Dr. O. C. Jenkins BSB 317 or Call 845-7361. 5715

WANTED
CASH FOR OLD GOLD
Class rings, wedding rings, worn out gold jewelry, coins, etc.
The Diamond room
Town & Country Shopping Center
3731 E. 29th St., Bryan
846-4708 1450

WANTED: AUDIENCE FOR SOLID GOLD CADILLAC
in A&M Forum.
Nov. 13, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22.
Curtain at 8:00 - guaranteed laughter!
$2.50 A&M Student - $3.50 Adults 50111

PERSONALS
John,
I saw a SOLID GOLD CADILLAC in A&M Forum last night. It runs Nov. 13, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22. Curtain at 8:00 - was great! Lotsa laughs - you should see it! P.S. Was only $2.50 for A&M students and $3.50 for adults. Marsha 50111

SERVICES
TYPING. Call Ramona after 5 p.m. 846-2127. 5816
Class papers, reports, theses, dissertations, resumes, etc. typed on our word processing system. We understand form and style. Automated Clerical Services. 846-1731.
Experienced editing of papers and reports. 775-2409. 6:30-10 pm. M-F, weekends 1 pm-10 pm.
Experienced professional typist. 693-1283.
Typing!! Reports, dissertations, etc. ON THE DOUBLE. 331 University. 846-3755. 1781fn
TYPING. 775-5343. 49115
Typing. Experienced. Reports, theses, medical and legal. 693-2857 after 6 pm. 45115
Typing, symbols, Notary Public. 823-7723. 1801fn
Typing. 823-4579. 44125
Typing. Experienced, fast, accurate. All kinds. 822-0544. 541fn

CHOOSE LIFE.
Alternatives to Abortion of Brazos County, Inc.
Information:
Anne at 846-5872 or Phyllis at 846-9693.
24 hour Hotline 775-5475 50113

OFFICIAL NOTICE
ATTENTION DECEMBER GRADUATES!
Graduation Announcement orders may be picked up beginning November 12 in the MSC Browsing Library, Mon-Fri 9AM-9PM, Sat-Sun 11AM-9PM.
Graduates unable to place an order in September, extra announcements will go on sale Wednesday, November 19, 1980 in the MSC Student Finance Center, room 221. First come - First serve, 8AM-4PM. 4814

ACCIELAND REFUND POLICY
Yearbook fees are refundable in full during the semester in which payment is made. Thereafter no refunds will be made on cancelled orders. Yearbooks must be picked up during the academic year in which they are published.
Students who will not be on campus when the yearbooks are published, usually in September, must pay a mailing and handling fee. Yearbooks will not be held, nor will they be mailed without the necessary fees having been paid.

SENIOR RING ORDERING PROCEDURE
The deadline for ordering the Texas A&M senior class ring this semester is December 5, 1980. To be eligible to order, an undergraduate student must have at least ninety-two (92) semester hours, with 30 hours at A&M and be in good standing with the university. To order please note the following instructions:
1. A record check must be made for eligibility determination. Leave your name, major and I.D. number with the ring clerk, no later than November 21st. This may not be done by phone.
2. Please allow one and a half weeks for the record check to be made.
3. If mid-term grades are needed to complete any of the above requirements, please bring them along when ready to order. If you no longer have a copy, they may be obtained from your department or advisor.
4. All ring must be paid for in full when the order is placed. Senior ring loans are available through the student financial aid office, YMCA building.
5. Orders are taken between 8:00-11:30 am and 1:00-4:00 pm, Monday through Friday.
6. Rings ordered between October 27th and December 5th will be delivered approximately March 12, 1980.
(Orders are also being taken for graduate students receiving degrees in December '80. In addition to a record check, the $11.00 graduation fee receipt must be presented to the ring clerk when ordering.) 58113

UNEXPECTED PREGNANCY?
Services through the 20th week. Awake or Asleep.
Women's Health Services of Houston and Dallas, Texas.
Off Metroplex Gyn. Group
Toll Free 1-800-442-4076 6101

STUDENTS PROFS. Card key punch. 779-9602 49115

ROOMMATE WANTED
Two female roommates needed for Spring. Own room, shuttlebus, $100/month plus $4 bills. 693-3689, 5-8 p.m. 5714
NEEDED: Place to live. Starting Spring semester. Prefer serious ME. 693-9118. Matt. 595
Female roommate wanted. Furnished townhouse. Own room, bus, very nice. 696-7664. 52110

EARN $235 MONTH JUST BY WORKING TWO NIGHTS
A WEEK (5 P.M.-2 A.M.)
at
Der Weinerschnitzel
More hours and shifts available.
Apply in person,
501 S. Texas Ave., Bryan,
between 9:30-11 A.M. weekdays. 49115

DOMESTIC SERVICES
Clean homes with other students.
Very flexible hours.
693-1954.
$3.50/hour + mileage.
Libby Vastano

LOST
Lost opal pendant and chain at Intramural complex on 11-12-80. Sentimental value. REWARD. 696-2822. 5417

CRUISES
CLUB MEDITERRANEAN, SAILING, EXPEDITIONS! Needed: Sports instructors, Office Personnel, Counselors, Europe, Caribbean, Worldwide Summer, Career. Send $5.95 + $1 handling for APPLICATION, OPENINGS, GUIDE to CRUISEWORLD 127, 80129, Sacramento, Ca. 95860.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:
For employment information at Texas A&M University dial 845-4444 24 hours a day. Equal Employment Opportunity through Affirmative Action.
Texas A&M University

FOR SALE
MGB 1976 GREAT CONDITION. 48,000 miles. Stereo. $3,450. 693-0213. 5514
3 t.u. football tickets for sale. 693-2329 after 5. 5816
74 Pinto Ranch Wagon. 4-speed, low mileage engine. $1000. Call 846-2127 after 5 p.m. 5815
Suzuki GN 400. Low mileage. 693-7929. 53110
1969 Cutlass. Very good condition. $500 or best offer. Call 846-3041. 5417
1977 Chevy Sportvan. $3800. 693-7530. Evenings. 5415
74 Gold Duster parts. Call Chris. 696-3320. 5415
74 Fiat 124 Sport Coupe, very good condition, well maintained. Good MPG, AM/FM stereo, 8-track. $2200. 693-6139. 5415
1978 Yamaha 1100SX. After 5:00 p.m. Call 693-0847. 5219
Rotel RX404 Receiver Sanyo TP1010 Turntable ESS Lin-Eff. speakers. Call 846-1894. 5613
Ladies Ice Skates. Size 8 1/2. Excellent Condition. $25. Call 696-2254. 5613
1978 Yamaha XS-400. Many extras. $975.00. 693-3905. 56110

3C BARBECUE #3 CULPEPPER PLAZA
We need people with energy and personality. Limited positions open Full or Part Time
Apply between 10-11 and 2-4 11fn

OVERSEAS JOBS - Summer/year round.
Europe, S. Amer., Australia, Asia. All fields. $500-$1200 monthly. Sightseeing, free info. Write: IJC, Box 52-TX4, Corona Del Mar, CA 92625.